NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

AROUND THE TOWN

Early indications of the CBRM vote indicates that there is an upswing in early voting and so far there doesn't seem to be any major problems with the system and that the upcoming elections will all be handled via telephone and internet and this is a good idea as it makes it easier to get your vote counted without the hassle of standing in line for long times which is especially difficult for many seniors..... Normally this year we would be attending a Celtic Colours Concert but with COVID that is not possible, however, the tremendous talent and music is still being performed and you can login and stream the various concerts for free, see page 8 of this edition for the remaining concerts in this series, congratulations to Celtic Coours for keeping the Festival alive and promoting Cape Breton Island around the world.... I have a new book that has just been published and it's all about Trivia - there are over 750 General Knowledge Trivia questions that you can entertain at home, on Facebook or at parties or showers - the cost is just $4.95 and I am making 10 copies available - just answer a trivia question (naturally) and you could be the Lucky Winner of a free copy - see page 8 for details - there's a section on Cape Breton trivia as well to help promote the Island - just in time for your Christmas shopping and it makes a great Stocking Stuffer..... if you're looking for some Fall produce, visit the Ross Ferry Farm Gate Market on Sundays, see page 3 for details and vendors..... the popular Munro Crafters Guild Christmas Fall Fair will not be held this year but they anticipate a Spring Fair providing COVID restrictions are lifted..... Many local Legions are worried about the upcoming Poppy Drive as this is one of the main fund raising projects that provide for the Veterans programs throughout the year, we will update you in the next edition regarding what you can do to help the Legions with this Year's Poppy Drive.... FREE PUBLICITY - If your club or group is sponsoring an event this Fall and are looking for free promotion, email us your information and we'll print it in our paper for free - send your info to thisweek@kleeradio.com

Take 2 with PAUL POWER

The music world lost a truly special lady on September 29th when Helen Reddy passed away at the age of 78. Born in Australia, "The Queen of '70's pop" first came to most people's attention with a song from the "Jesus Christ Superstar" musical, yet Helen was reluctant to record "I Don't Know How To Love Him", using it as the b-side to her "I Believe In Music" single (that song later became a hit for the band Gallery). Her crowning glory, and defining moment was her re-recorded version of 1971's "I Am Woman". The track went on to be a number 1 hit song in many countries. It also became an important anthem for the women's liberation movement, celebrating and embracing female empowerment. To that end, there's a fantastic new biographical film out called "I Am Woman" that follows Helen's career path-and when she saw a preview of it Helen was moved to tears. The movie features fellow Australian actor Tilda Cobham-Hervey portraying Helen (an amazing portrayal at that), with singing voice provided by Chelsea Cullen. Music biopics are some of my favourite viewing choices and this one really brought home how special Helen's music was, and her incredible influence on giving a musical voice to the women's equal rights movement of the 1970's. The film does a great job showing the sexist and misogynist wall Helen had to climb over to do things her way-and be true to her beliefs and values. Thankfully Helen did record more great songs after the overwhelming success of "I Am Woman", with "Angie Baby", "Delta Dawn", "Ain't No Way To Treat A Lady", "You And Me Against The World", "Leave Me Alone (Ruby Red Dress)" and "We'll Sing In The Sunshine" being the most well-known ones. Her career waned in the 1980's and 1990's and Reddy released her final album in 2000 (a Christmas album). She blamed the downturn on her ex-husband Jeff Wald-he basically had her blacklisted in show business (Jeff is a Hollywood bigwig who also managed Sylvester Stallone, Marvin Gaye, James Brolin, Donna Summer, Clint Black and Mike Tyson-to name just a few). Helen had a successful stage career, and starred in Disney's "Pete's Dragon" movie and the film "Airport". She made many television appearances and did voice-over work, and how could we ever forget "The Helen Reddy Show". Reddy retired from show business in 2002, moving back to Australia-but did do occasional work. She was diagnosed with dementia in 2017 and spent her last days in California.

A few weeks ago i had the pleasure of interviewing another cast member of the the upcoming fan film Voorhees. Neil Freuen who is cast as Norman and to give a short little thing on his character a s Norman.

He's a weird isolated guy that lives in the Woods by himself and living next to Jason his whole life. To make a long story short, he knows how to deal with the evil that's out there, his character is going to be interesting if you ask me. If you'd like to listen to my interview with Neil you are welcome to https://

I also had the pleasure of interviewing this cast member of the upcoming fan film Voorhees James Masten, who is cast as Derek . To describe his character Derek is one of the main mas- t-er-minds Derek of the overall height of the group . I guess we could say he's the redeemable character of the group.

A Wish From Clifford Street Youth Centre - VOTE in this Municipal Election!!!

There are many things that impact our daily lives, some we can control, some beyond our control and still some that we had a 'choice' in ~ electing a representative to express our needs to those that govern us where we live is one such choice. On a local level we have our municipal councillors and mayor, who we are asked, privileged, to vote for/elect ~ and it is by phone or on line!!! No need to leave the house!

At Clifford Street Youth Centre we ask the children to vote as well, usually, as 'children are honest in their opinions', sometimes painfully honest. This year is a bit different with covid all around though. We have seen Earlene in our area on several occasions, no mayoral candidates however. [in fairness I saw Danny knocking doors in Sydney Mines too] Why the shout out? Well mostly because as a voter I want my elected person to actually do their job for the area they represent. Ask them what they have done, actually have done/started/completed/reported back on... so many "I'm gonna" promises with no track record of starting, attempting, failing but learning, or reporting back on anything meaningful to those that elected them ~ and I still like to see visible candidates which allows for a brief chat....so props to those we see 'walking the beat'.

~politics offer a great teaching point for our kids...

I have attended many board meetings where the leader of the group talks about what they are doing this summer, fall, winter etc... grandiose fantastic plans, but when you follow up months later they did very little... they paint a pretty picture and then delete the negative. [trash the photo for the digital folks] And like your shampoo says they 'rinse and repeat' selling the same load of fertilizer again and again. Sounds very familiar....

Another familiar trait late in the election process is "feathering the nest". This is where, during the election, a candidate starts feathering the nest, or making space for a soft landing, by blaming others for the candidates [low] rating in the polls... [Trump is blaming the US postal service as we speak] This feathering, even before they actually lose or win, is their ego's escape clause. People didn't vote for me because I am xxx, or the 'big agency' [post office in US according to Trump] is out to get me etc... or the CBRM phone poll/online voting is rigged etc etc. If your, or any, candidate starts feathering the nest this week... stay away from them... it is always someone, anyone, else's fault [they will blame anyone in reach BTW] ...great indicator of how they would perform if elected doncha think?

Kids say the darndest things...

Want an honest opinion, ask a child... shame they don't vote, yet, because they generally see the true person and as children speak their mind they have a pretty darn good handle on those that are 'good'.

So why the push to vote? COVID really hurt, and continues to hurt, all those volunteer groups in our community. No sports teams bagging groceries, very few raffles, few baskets at the mall/fewer shoppers, and all those traditional helping agencies; Rotary, Kiwanis, Golden K, Lions, Salvation Army, Legions, Blue Knights, Fire halls, Royal & Scotia banks, and every church group has suffered this year. Those groups work hard to raise funds and kindly donate to local, including sometimes Clifford Street, non profits continually. The municipality does have, or did have, limited funds to help community groups, [seemingly the same 'big' groups repeatedly], but they too have suffered. This is often a last resort fund... how much actually comes to the Northside though [A good question to ask all those big fundraisers] ? But even that fund will suffer this year.... An article in the Cape Breton Post last week cited that roughly one in five non profits will close by Christmas this year due to funding shortfalls..... [no Clifford St.has not received any of those mythical funds from CBRM in our almost fourteen years

Legion Poppy Campaign is hurting! Donate!!

Some candidates are making large promises... question them hard! Why? Well some have made these same promises repeatedly for the past few years as they ran for any, and seemingly every, available elected position... ask them what they have done to date/ since then, what have they learned since they made this promise 'back then' , and if they are still bringing it up for this municipal election how their position has changed or grown. Press them hard. Are they promising just one thing to save us all? Or do they have a balanced platform? Small and big dreams or are they a 'one trick pony'? Does their platform leave out the district they are actually running for? [Some have huge promises but say nothing about what they will do in their own riding!]

The choice is yours! It affects you, your friends and family, non profits, teams, churches, halls, us all! These groups are what completes our community, we are the fabric they holds our families together. And here you can vote without blindly following party lines for a change. Please vote for the person that will get things done, not rant and rave, actually put words into action. VOTE, it is your right and privilege... "people elect the government they deserve"... [by the way you deserve the very best] make your voice heard, VOTE, if you don't vote then don't complain later.

The kids at Clifford Street will be voting on Friday. Destiny has just joined us until the New Year...she will be in charge... We will post our results next week!

All the best, get out and VOTE,

(Paul Ratchford for Clifford Street Youth Centre, 902 794-9371 to volunteer or donate. (Welcome aboard Destiny!
