K-LEE RADIO has revived the Pig & Whistle TV Show as part of their Corona Virus response to entertainment while we are confined to home. The format is similar to the TV program with a song to start off the show by the Carlton Show Band who were the house band for the show.

Also included in the one hour format is the best of Cape Breton and Celtic music, comedy and fiddle tunes.

The show airs Monday night at 6:30 and again on Friday evening at 7:00 pm. Tune in and enjoy some great down home music.

We're waiting for you at the Pig & Whistle Show

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Great News For Local Businesses

The following businesses can open on June 5 if they are ready and choose to do so:

Restaurants for dine-in, takeout and delivery

Bars, wineries, distilleries and taprooms

Personal services, such as hair salons, barber shops, spas, nail salons and body-art establishments

Fitness facilities, such as gyms, yoga studios and climbing facilities

However, lounges are not permitted to reopen at this time.

The following health providers can also reopen on June 5, provided they follow the proper protocols laid out in their colleges' and associations' plans, as approved by public health.

Dentistry and other self-regulated professionals, such as optometry, chiropractic and physiotherapy

Unregulated health professions, such as massage therapy, podiatry and naturopathy.

Veterinarians can also re-open on June 5.

This is great news for local businesses who have been waiting for the opportunity to get back and open and running their businesses.

We can expect additional restrictions to be lifted as Summer approaches and the public realize and understand that precautions will have to be implemented in order to ensure safety.

Masks, gloves and plastic sheilds will be the norm and there seems to be little fuss with these precautions.

AROUND THE TOWN

What a difference a week makes - the weather set a record for warm temperature, the Nova Scotia Government outlined Guidelines for local businesses to begin the opening process and the mackerel are running early - does it get any better than this??? For those of you who have children who have been climbing the walls lately, I would suggest you investigate fishing mackerel, no licence is required and the fishing gear is very inexpensive to buy - you can catch all kinds of mackerel down at Indian Beach in North Sydney and have lots of fun in the process.... K-LEE RADIO has been planning outdoor remote programs free of charge for Northside residents and we are now looking for suitable sites to host the shows - keep tuned to the paper and our website for location updates - we are looking forward to meeting with you again soon.... I still don't understand the restriction on church services - people can do the social distancing and wear masks just as easily as they do to go to the liquor store, Grocery store, Wal-Mart and the Dollar Store - I don't have any issues with these businesses being open, they are all adhering to the precautions and following the Guidelines and churches can easily do so as well.... see page 3 for a listing of the businesses that can start opening June 5th - I'm so glad the barber shops are included in this - my hair has grown wild and I'm starting to look like one of the characters from Duck Dynasty - it will be great to have the hair trimmed back to normal.... I want to send a little note of congratulations to the Nova Scotia and Federal governments who have taken positive steps to ensure the physical health and the economic health of people from all over Canada - this COVID-19 virus has hit us all hard and their financial response has enabled most Cape Bretoners to hold off the "wolf at the door" for the past few months and the addition of the upcoming rebate for seniors and pensioners will be very welcome - thank you all for the caring and vision to protect the most vulnerable in our area - Watch for me as I host several free radio remote shows in the upcoming weeks - it will feel so good to mingle and laugh again - Glen

The Intrepid Treasure Hunters

If there's one thing I hate doing, it's yard work. It's not that I don't like a nice yard and lawn, I just hate the actual chore of cutting grass and making the soil ready for gardening. So when my wife gave me my Spring ultimatum to have the soil tilled, I immediately began to think of ways to get out of the work.

I sat on my front porch swing deep in thought when I heard the neighbourhood kids playing at being pirates. A lightbulb went off in my head. I went to the bank and got $10.00 worth of coins, nickels, dimes and quarters. I then used a sharpened steel rod to drive hole in the ground about 6 inches deep and bury all the coins all over the garden area. It took me about two hours to do but I didn't mind since I didn't consider this work.

I then set my plan in motion. I casually mentioned to the "pirates" that a bank robber was supposed to have buried treasure in my yard many years back. Their faces lit up and they asked me a thousand questions. I pretended I wasn't too interested but I finally said I would get my metal detector and see if any of the loot was still around.

Naturally, the whole garden area showed up as minor bips on my detector and the kids were frantic with excitement. I got out the garden hoe and a shovel.

The kids quickly dug up the "treasure" and they soon had about $1.00 in change. I kept moving around the yard to make sure all the soil was dug up.

The kids were beginning to tire and at the $9.00 mark they decided to pack in the treasure hunt and spend some of the booty they dug up.

The kids were going to split the "treasure" three ways but I said since they did all the work, they could keep all the money. This met with a cheer and a very hardy "thank you" from the two treasure hunters.

When my wife returned from her shopping trip, the garden was all dug up ready for planting. She was quite pleased and happy.

However, the smile on my face made her wonder what I was up to. When I told her, she was appalled and said I had to call the parents of the two boys and apologize.

I reluctantly called and was surprised when one of the fathers said, "No problem." He said the kids were out of the house all afternoon, they earned money and got exercise.

The kids could hardly contain themselves and talked of nothing else but the treasure they dug up. He said he wanted to use the same tactic again to keep the kids motivated.

It just goes to show you that work can be made into fun if you use a little imagination.

I always was a Metalhead; I do love other types of music but once in your bloodstream heavy metal poisoning stays there forever. With that, it's hard to believe that it's been 3.5 years since Metallica released this album; "Hardwired...to Self-Destruct" saw an 8 year drought for the band come to an end-and it was well worth the wait. Many fans believe the band's first 3 albums ("Kill 'Em All", "Ride the Lightning" and "Master of Puppets", all with bassist Cliff Burton) was their best work-and with the tragic passing of Cliff in September of 1986 that the band was not the same, not as good. I'm sorry, but that's not true. Bassist Jason Newsted soon signed on and the band released their second best album of all time, "And Justice for All..." which led the way to 1991 and the band's best work ever, "Metallica" (often-referred to as the 'black album'). Two more good albums came out ("Load" in 1996 and "Reload" in 1997) then the band went to crap. The "St. Anger" album was pure garbage, an embarrassment to the greatest Thrash Metal band in history, and 2008's "Death Magnetic" did little to make up for that fiasco. Making matters worse, the band got all wussy, as the "Some Kind of Monster" documentary showed us, Metallica wouldn't be Metallica without some drama-but the band turned into a bunch of spoiled rich "rock stars" who needed a good swift kick in the ass with a size 12 Doc Martin; instead they brought in a life coach...WTF? We also got to see just how much of a major a-hole drummer Lars Ulrich really was. In January of 2001, bassist Jason Newsted asked the band to take a year-long break, using that time to focus on his side-project Echobrain. Of course, James Hetfield went nuts and rejected Newsted's request-so Newsted quit the band. Hetfield then went into rehab for alcohol abuse and anger issues. I saw Metallica live and it was beyond magical. Even though they were raking in millions in subsequent years it was hard to watch these metal gods spiral down into navel-gazing wimpdom. However, with this release their return to metal supremacy is now the stuff of legend.

I forgot to mention that this release is a double album set-and that's what this review is-2 parts, so you'll have to wait until next week to read my musings on the music; believe me it's worth the wait.

'ROAD OF LIFE'

The road of life can be fleeting fame and may sometimes pass you by.
So don't stop to smell the flowers,
your opportunities may slide by.

Don't stop as you approach a stranger,
nod as he passes through,
Remember its The Coronavirus,
Not The Seasonal Flu.

When you leave your road to ride a slow, train winding its way through life.
May every whistle stop be an occasion,
to catch your breath and set things right.

Heed my advice son for the words I have I have said, You'll never be sorry for the life you have led,
for it'll be straight and wide, with an occasional bend,
So travel it well son,
and call it your friend.

Have Your Very Own Cape Breton Ceilidh To Help Celebrate The End Of The Corona Quarantine

K-LEE RADIO has been providing local audiences with music for over 10 years on our internet radio station.

To help celebrate our return to social visiting, we have decided that you may want to celebrate with a good old fashioned Cape Breton Ceilidh with family and friends.

We will come to your home/ barbecue/bungalow and provide a 3 hour radio remote show that will also be broadcast on the internet so that family and friends that can't make it to the show will be able to tune in and listen to the music and any conversation you wish to have with them.

Station Manager Glen Gray stated, "I know that Cape Bretoners share a great family tradition and music plays a central role in that sharing. We realize that we are coming out of a long social distancing which is not natural for us. The typical way that we celebrate is to have a Ceilidh with music, song and laughter. That's where we come in by providing the musical entertainment."

The station will come to your location within the Industrial Cape Breton area and broadcast the show for your friends and family and to those tuning in via the internet.

With many of the local Concerts and music events being cancelled over the Summer, this is an alternative to hear some of your favorite music.

The cost is reasonable - $50.00 for the 3 hours. Book now for your Summer Event by email at - thisweek@kleeradio.com

TAX TIPS COLUMN

Filing 2019 taxes through the COVID-19 crisis

At the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), we understand that the COVID-19 pandemic may make it difficult for some Canadians to file their returns and meet their diverse tax-filing needs. To help, we extended filing and payment deadlines. Here's what you need to know.

New tax filing and payment deadlines - The deadline for most individuals to file their 2019 taxes has been extended to June 1, 2020. The deadline to pay amounts owed has also been extended to September 1, 2020. Penalties and interest will not be charged if payments are made by the extended deadlines of September 1, 2020. This includes the late-filing penalty as long as the return is filed by September 1, 2020.

If you, your spouse, or your common-law partner are self-employed, you still have until June 15, 2020, to file your taxes. However, your payment deadline has also been extended to September 1, 2020.

For those who have to pay by instalments, the June 15, 2020, payment due date has also been extended to September 1st. Instalment penalties and interest will not be charged for this payment if it is made by the extended deadline of September 1, 2020.

For more information on the filing and payment deadline changes due to COVID-19, go to Income tax filing and payment deadlines: CRA and COVID-19.

Why file by the deadline if no payment is due until September 1?

Filing by the deadline will minimize impacts to your benefit and credit payments. If your 2019 return has not been assessed by the CRA, information from your 2018 return will be used to calculate benefit and credit payments until September 2020.

That will ensure you continue to receive important payments that will help through the COVID-19 crisis. However, you may not be getting exactly the right amounts.

By filing a return by the deadline, you will minimize this impact. Also, if you are owed a refund, the earlier you file, the earlier it will arrive in your pocket. By registering for direct deposit, you'll get your refund even faster.

Are you behind?
We understand it happens!
