Unlike the conventional methods of rust proofing which tend to work as coating, a KROWN treatment actually displaces moisture and creeps into the inner metal fold of the vehicle - the areas where the most rust problems start. The KROWN formula remains active as an invisible barrier to repel moisture and salt and prevent it from re-entering the metal. The KROWN product can be applied in any season and weather.

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Take 2 with PAUL POWER

Welcome to a year where our vision is perfect! Last month I had the chance to read 2 great books courtesy of the Cape Breton Regional Library (please support them in any-and every way you can) . Both books had so much information in them that it's difficult to summarize, but in a nutshell here goes; the first was “Randy Bachman's Vinyl Tap Stories”; a collection of his best tales and recollections from his CBC Radio program of the same name, and of course about his time with Brave Belt, BTO, Ironhorse and The Guess Who, and how it all started with an inspired 15 year old Randy seeing Elvis Presley for the first time on television. Of course Randy Bachman has been an integral part of the Canadian Rock music scene since the early 1960's, and is recognized internationally for his great guitar skills, songwriting talents, being a pioneer of hard rock in this country, and for just being an all-round nice guy. The book is filled with amusing anecdotes, music trivia, road stories and some music business tales from Canada, the United States and the U.K.-all told in Randy's own words. Guitar players will especially like Randy's encyclopedic knowledge of guitars and recording studio tales about some of Canada's best rock songs ever. Again, there's too many cool things to read about in this book to cover here-so check it out for yourself (um...library pun there...never mind). The second book was “Nowhere with You: The East Coast Anthems of Joel Plaskett, The Emergency and Thrush Hermit” by Josh O'Kane. The book basically serves as a history lesson for this province's alternative rock scene in the 1990's, the “Seattle North” music industry boom that never happened-and how so many artists had to move away over the years to “make it”; Joel's steadfast determination to keep his home base anchored in Nova Scotia-even as he traveled throughout Canada, the United States and Europe performing, and recording is inspirational. Those of us who have tasted life away from N.S. realize that once the Atlantic Ocean's salt water is in your blood it's there to stay. All in all, this is a great book is about a city, a musical scene (past and present) and one heck of a talented musician who's one of our own.

GRANT'S HOROSCOPE

As promised Grant, here's your weekly Horoscope.

As dynamic Mars journeys through your domestic sector, it's a great opportunity for some decluttering. In fact, this week can be a time of clearing out and paring things back to the essentials. With a powerful lunar eclipse across your social axis, and a transformative Saturn-Pluto merger in your creative zone, you could be on the verge of a powerful shift.

Where are you not being true to yourself? The answer could be revealing. This week's alignment encourages you to accept yourself, warts and all, because by doing so it will be easier to express your unique purpose. Want to be an artist, craftsperson, musician, or anything else? It's time to drop the mask and show the world who you really are.

In addition, you might have the option of collaborating with someone this week or find that a romance begins to take shape. Go easy, though, and take your time to build this relationship. There's no hurry.

Your Lucky Numbers - 7, 22, 29, 31 and 44.

WINTER SPORTS FISHERY

Anglers in the province or visiting can enjoy Nova Scotia's 2020 winter fishing season, beginning New Year's Day.

Freshwater lakes open for winter provide an opportunity to fish for brook and rainbow trout, white and yellow perch and chain pickerel.

A general fishing licence is required, however anglers may take advantage of the annual winter sportfishing weekend Feb. 15-17.

THE CHRISTMAS RABBITS

One of the many Cape Breton Christmas traditions is rabbit pie over the holidays. My father dearly loved this delicacy and when I got older and had my license, a bunch of "the boys" would go rabbit hunting over the Christmas school vacation.

In the 1970s, I have a half ton truck I jokingly referred to as the half ton Ford from Hell. I used that truck to haul me and my buddies pretty well everywhere in Cape Breton. On this particular day, three friends of mine all piled into the truck and I had a homemade wooden shell over the truck and a Coleman heater and a Coleman stove in the back.

I was in a hurry on this day and wanted to get an early start so I could get some rabbits for my father's pie. We decided to hunt rabbits in Frenchvale.

We had reports of "tons of rabbits" from friends and fellow hunters. When we arrived at our spot, I got out of the truck to change into my hunting boots and discovered that they were not there. I remembered leaving them by the door so I wouldn't forget them, well, so much for that trick.

The boys had a good laugh but I urged them to go hunting and I would use the Coleman stove to cook up a "scoff of beef stew" and tea. I was sitting in the back of the truck and my 22 calibre rifle was laying in an old blanket next to me. I was sitting on the tailgate listening to the radio when I spied a rabbit running across the log road we were parked on.

I carefully took out the rifle and bagged my first rabbit. Within an hour, I had 5 rabbits, no doubt spooked out of the woods by my fellow hunters. When the boys got back, I asked if they had any luck.

"We saw a million tracks but not a single rabbit." I just smiled and said to have a look in the back of the truck. They couldn't believe it. While they plowed through the woods in knee deep snow, I was sitting comfortably with a cup of tea and a bowl of stew listening to the radio.

I only needed two rabbits so I gave the extra ones away so that everybody could enjoy some rabbit pie for Christmas. I never let them forget that trip and I would make sure to tell the tale of the great rabbit hunters of Frenchvale to anyone who cared to listen.

Like many young men in Cape Breton, I had to head West to look for work and leave our wonderful island. I always save a week's vacation so that I can return home at Christmas. I go hunting rabbits when I come home but I was never able to get 5 again. This day was one of my all time favorite Cape Breton Christmas memories.

'DAD ARE ALL FATHERS MINERS'?

Dad! are all fathers miners? A miner's boy asked ?

There's grand dad, you, Big brother Pat, my friend's uncle, his cousin too, Dad! are all fathers miners, I question you ?

Son, I understand question, now enlighten you, beyond The Circle lies another crew, of teachers, lawyers, pilots in the sky, store clerks, soda jerks, DJ's live, fishermen, farmer's sailors of the sea, beyond The Circle, there's more activity.

Son! not all fathers are miners like big brother Pat, Tobacco chewing Johnny or Side Kick Matt but allies toiling side by side, plying their trade making town thrive, plying their trade making town thrive.
