NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

How To Make A Leprechaun Trap And Capture His Gold Treasure

We all know how tricky Leprechauns can be so here is a simple craft project that will help your kids capture that elusive Leprechaun and maybe just get his gold!!

All the material is easily available at the Dollar store and the construction is easy. See the picture below for details.

Leprechauns cannot resist Free Gold so check the trap first thing every morning and see if you have a Leprechaun.

The construction paper is easy to cut to make the circle around the top.

The ladder can easily be made from two pipe cleaners. Lean it up against the jar as shown in the picture.

Make sure you mark the arrow so the Leprechaun can see the shiny gold coins.

Check the trap often

MATERIALS

Mason Jar or Glass vase
Gold Coins (loonies)
Green Construction Paper
Pipe Cleaners
Glue or Glue stick
Black Marker

1. Cut out a circle from construction paper, making it slightly larger than the opening of the mason jar. Cut a smaller circle out of the center of the circle for an opening in the jar. Write "FREE GOLD" on top of the circle.

2. Cut a 2 inch wide strip of construction paper and fit it around the mouth of the jar, gluing it at the ends. Then glue the circle to the top.

3. Make a ladder out of 2 pipe cleaners and lean it up against the jar.

4. Add gold coins (loonies)

Take 2 with PAUL POWER

So here we are, another St. Patrick's Day and the second one under the damn cloud of Covid. But the 'Luck of the Irish' can still be with you with the DROPKICK MURPHYS "11 Short Stories of Pain and Glory".

This album by the boys from Boston will kick yer arse. My disclaimer right up front is that for those of you who are not familiar with the Dropkick Murphys they have more in common with The Clash and Rancid than they do with The Irish Rovers. This is basically 11 songs covered in Guinness and gasoline, and the album sees the boys getting rougher in their old age. The party kicks off with a lilting lament that turns into a full-on chanting prelude called "The Lonesome Boatman"-then it's full steam-ahead with "Rebels With A Cause"; this is where the boys really show their punk attitude. There's no doubt that at times the Dropkicks are channeling Bruce Springsteen on "Blood", "Sandlot", "Paying My Way" and especially on "You'll Never Walk Alone". As a matter of fact, 'The Boss' has done live performances and recordings with the Dropkicks over the years. That's down to their shared working-class, blue collar average Joe sentiment that fuels their music. One of the purest

Celtic songs here is "First Class Loser" (a perfect song to describe Frank Gallagher from the TV show "Shameless") which has the boys sounding a lot like The Dubliners, only amped up a bit; on "4-15-13" you could easily imagine Shane McGowan (The Pogues) wailing out on this one. It's tamer, and more traditional than most of the songs on the album-and it's lovely. The flipside is "I Had A Hat", which is pure mosh-pit Irish-punk; crazy, demented and intoxicating. The biggest surprise though is the song "Kicked To The Curb" which is a rock and roll romper stomper with jangling guitars. Another surprise is how much "Until The Next Time" sounds like a song by the 1980's pop/ska band Madness. This is a definite treat. So down a pint or 2 of the dark stuff, and think about The Emerald Isle today. I'll leave you with a few Irish blessings; May you live as long as you want, and never want as long as you live....and may the Good Lord take a liking to you... but not too soon!

NORTH SYDNEY FIRE & RESCUE HEATING SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

There is something about the Winter months and curling up with a good book by the fireplace. But did you know that heating equipment is one of the leading causes of home fire deaths? With a few simple safety tips and precautions you can prevent most heating fires from happening.

Be warm and safe this Winter!

- Keep anything that can burn at least three-feet (one metre) away from heating equipment, like the furnace, fireplace, wood stove, or portable space heater.
- Have a three-foot (one metre) "kid-free zone" around open fires and space heaters.
- Never use your oven to heat your home.
- Have a qualified professional install stationary space heating equipment, water heaters or central heating equipment according to the local codes and manufacturer's instructions.
- Have heating equipment and chimneys cleaned and inspected every year by a qualified professional.
- Remember to turn portable heaters off when leaving the room or going to bed.
- Always use the right kind of fuel, specified by the manufacturer, for fuel burning space heaters.
- Make sure the fireplace has a sturdy screen to stop sparks from flying into the room. Ashes should be cool before putting them in a metal container. Keep the container a safe distance away from your home.
- Test smoke alarms at least monthly.

HEATING EQUIPMENT SMARTS

Install wood burning stoves following the manufacturer's instructions or have a professional do the installation.

All fuel burning equipment should be vented to the outside to avoid carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning.

Install and maintain CO alarms to avoid the risk of CO poisoning. If you smell gas in your gas heater, do not light the appliance. Leave the home immediately and call your local fire department or gas company.

TAX TIPS COLUMN

Often Overlooked Tax Deductions

MEDICAL EXPENSES - Even if you've claimed your prescriptions and dental bills, you may not have realized that other medical expenses are tax-deductible. Commonly overlooked medical expenses include:

Private medical insurance premiums, Tutoring for children with disabilities, Home renovations that improve mobility or access.

Travel expenses to seek medical treatment (over 40 km one-way), Prescription contact lens or glasses, Dentures and dental implants.

CREDITS FOR OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS

The word "dependant" doesn't include just children. If you're supporting a dependant other than your spouse and minor kids, you could be missing out on tax relief. You may be eligible to claim -

Medical expenses for other dependants, The Canada Caregiver Amount, The Home Accessibility Tax Credit

THE "DID YOU KNOW?" LIST

Did you know that if you relocated more than 40 km for work, you may be eligible to claim your moving expenses?

Eligible expenses include travel costs, fees for replacing your driver's license, and utility hook-ups.

Childcare expenses aren't limited to just daycares and in-home providers. Did you know that your child's summer camp fees might be deductible too?

If you're disabled, you may have purchased a more accessible home last year. If you have a valid Disability Tax Certificate on file with CRA, you may be eligible to claim the home buyers' amount - even if you're not a first-time buyer. Special rules apply for taxpayers who are eligible for the disability amount.
