NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

COVID

AROUND THE TOWN

Three weeks into the COVID lockdown and I'm starting to get Cabin Fever like many of you out there - we were doing so well with COVID and then the "bubble" opened up and we were swamped with cases - this just proves that we need to be vigilant and make sure we are following all the protocols I got my first COVID shot this past week and it was very easy - I'm a real woosie when it comes to needles but this was quite painless and it was done quickly and efficiently - if anyone is putting off the COVID shot because of the needle, take it from me it's easy and quick.... and speaking of Cabin Fever, K-LEE RADIO has recorded some classic rock and roll music podcasts called "Cabin Fever" and you can download them from their website for free - www.kleeradio.com - and while you're there, check out the 6 new shows we have listed for you from our Classic Old Time Radio Shows - see the story opposite this column to see what we have this week - each week we'll feature new Podcasts for you to listen to.... Paul Power has a LYNIRD SKYNRD music review on his TAKE 2 music column on page 6 of this issue.... there's another story from the "Oh, Me Shattered Nerves" book for your reading pleasure - the book is now available online at www.kleeradio.com....the Cape Breton Classic Cruisers Wheels and Deals Show & Shine and Swap Meet is scheduled for Saturday, June 12th and Sunday the 13th at Centre 200 - be sure to check the next few issues to make sure the event can be held due to COVID..... if you haven't finished your Tax Return yet, check out the great Tax advice on page 8 of this issue with TAX TIPS - there are many new tax deductions you may not be aware of..... if you're in the mood for Classic Country music, you should check out KennyWalsh's "PHANTOM COUNTRY" show on K-LEE RADIO every Sunday evening at 6:00 pm.... I have a request for the Nova Scotia COVID website to keep updated on any changes - check it often for recreational, social gathering, visiting and self isolation info <https://novascotia.ca/coronavirus/restrictions-and-guidance/> - FREE PUBLICITY - If your group or organization is planning an upcoming community event and want some free publicity, simply email us with your information and we'll publish it free of charge - just send us your information at this email address - thisweek@kleeradio.com

6 New Shows Added To Website

SNAKE EYES

One of the many pastimes the kids around Ashby participated in was fishing and I have a few stories about that in this book. This story centers around the bait we used for fishing. All the kids went out on the lawns and gardens to gather up the nightcrawlers to sell for fishing bait. Several of us sold nightcrawlers as well to earn spending money. On this occasion, I was mowing the lawn for Mrs. Gallivan and she came out and asked me to help her carry the groceries home.

I had a can of nightcrawlers with me as I was planning to go fishing right after I was finished mowing the lawn. Rather than leave them in the hot sun, I put the can on the floor in the back of Mrs. Gallivan's car.

She picked up her groceries and I helped her carry them into the car and then into her house. When I returned to the car to get the worms, the can was tipped over and half the worms were gone.

Naturally I wasn't going to say anything and get in trouble. Like most kids, I assumed that this problem would just go away with a little time.

Two days passed and I was feeling I got away with another one. Suddenly a scream that could be heard for a mile came from the Gallivan yard and Mrs Gallivan running out into the street screaming, "Snakes, there's snakes in my car!"

At that moment I really thought there really were snakes in her car but they didn't bother me so I opened up the door and there were about 6 nightcrawlers on the drivers side floor. I picked up the nightcrawlers and threw them onto the lawn. I boldly told her that they probably crawled in because she parked her car close to the lawn in the evening.

I checked the rest of the car but I couldn't find any more worms although I was sure there were still some left. She thanked me and I noticed that night that her car was parked on the opposite side of the lawn.

"She was a basket case for a few days" and "Yeah, I never seen her so discombobulated"

LYNYRD SKYNYRD—"Live from Jacksonville" is a concert DVD that documents a long-time dream for the band; to go back to their home town in Jacksonville, Florida to perform their first two albums live over a 2-night period ("Pronounced Leh-Nerd Skin-Nerd" on the first night and "Second Helping" on the second night). The only 'original' member on this stage was lead guitarist Gary Rossington but that doesn't take anything away from the performance. Without covering every song I'm starting with the first night and the "Pronounced Leh-Nerd Skin-Nerd" album by going right to the fourth song; "Simple Man" has sentimental meaning for me because of a family wedding. The song tells the tale of a mother talking to her only son, telling him what kind of man she wants him to grow up to be-and the song's uplifting lyrics are heartfelt. The performance here is absolutely spellbinding and intense, which you can see on the band's faces even after all these years. Of course, "Tuesday's Gone" has to be mentioned, with the amazing version here-and after 47 years the legendary "Freebird" still rings true as one of the greatest classic rock and roll anthems of all time. Night 2 shines as bright as the sun with the opening song "Sweet Home Alabama". Not many bands can say they have a classic rock and roll anthem; Lynyrd Skynyrd can claim 2. This legendary number started out as a slam on Neil Young's songs "Southern Man" and "Alabama" and quickly became a rock and roll standard. "Don't Ask Me No Questions" and "Call Me The Breeze" really shows how good the band is live, and "The Ballad Of Curtis Loew" and "The Needle And The Spoon" highlight the band's storytelling skills through lyrics. The late Ronnie Van Zant was the original singer on the albums, but his younger brother Johnny has been the lead vocalist for the band since 1987, and does a phenomenal job handling the songs. This DVD looks brilliant and sounds great. The video is 1080p resolution, with audio available in DTS Digital Surround, Dolby Digital: 5.1 Surround and 2.0 Stereo. Plus there's a bonus feature-a backstage visit with the band. Lynyrd Skynyrd are without a doubt the kings of Southern Rock and Roll-and this DVD lets us see and hear why.

Ross Ferry Farm Gate Market 2021

Last year at this time, the planning committee for the Ross Ferry Farmers' Market was brainstorming to figure out if we could hold a market at all. COVID restrictions prevented an indoor market.

We decided on a very different model....one that was COVID friendly, both safe and fun. The vendors set up at their driveways and the customers drove around the island. It was a huge success. Customers loved the adventure and really enjoyed the experience.

We called it the Ross Ferry Farm Gate Market. Our situation has not really changed in 2021 and so we've decided to operate the market the same as last year. One big benefit of this model is that space is unlimited.

That means we can bring on new vendors for this season. We are interested in welcoming vegetable growers, bakers, honey, maple syrup or egg producers. In general we would love to have more food vendors.

If you are interested, please contact market coordinator Joella Foulds at 902-674-2578. If you don't live along the road, we may be able to find a spot for you.

Check out the website at this address - <http://rossferrymarinepark.weebly.com/farmers-market.html> The Farm Gate Market will begin on July 4th and take place every Sunday afternoon from noon to 3 pm, all around the Kempt Head Road, through to the end of September.

Respectively submitted by Joella Foulds

GRASS FIRE SAFETY

A grass fire differs from other fires by its extensive size, the speed at which it can spread out from its original source, its potential to change direction unexpectedly and its ability to jump gaps such as roads, rivers and fire breaks. To prevent dangerous grass fires, assess your property to determine its risk. Tall trees, wild grass, shrubs and any other combustible materials can all contribute to spreading a fire. During drought or extended lengths of dry weather, this vegetation can become perfect fuel for a fire driven by strong winds. Some simple planning will greatly reduce the threat to your home, property and community.

- * Do not throw cigarette or cigar butts on the ground or out of a vehicle. Dispose of them properly and make sure they are completely extinguished.

- * Keep a 30 foot "safety zone" surrounding your home. This area should be clear of brush, with grass cut short. Store firewood and other combustible materials at least 30 feet away from any buildings. For homes that sit on a steep slope, the safety zone should be increased accordingly.

- * Keep your yard healthy, cut and watered - it is a natural firebreak.

- * Clean up dead leaves and twigs from yard, roof and gutters. Cut tree limbs within 15 feet of the ground and remove dead branches that extend over the roof.

- * Do not park cars, trucks or recreational vehicles on dry grass or shrubs. Exhaust systems on vehicles can reach temperatures of more than 500° C. It only takes about 200° C to start a grass fire in the Summer.

- * Use an approved spark arrester on all internal combustion engine power equipment. This special muffler helps ensure that sparks generated by off road vehicles, chainsaws and other equipment don't start grass fires.

- * Parents should emphasize to their children the dangers of playing with fire. Children who have no idea how quickly flames can grow and spread, start many grass fires.

- * Homeowners who barbecue should maintain a 10 foot area free of brush and shrubbery around grills and propane tanks. Never leave a grill unattended.

- * Keep a shovel, buckets of water, fire extinguisher or garden hose on hand any time while burning outside.

- * If conducting a controlled burn, have a water hose close by and inform your local fire department before burning.

TAX TIPS COLUMN

Changes for individuals and families

Withdrawals have increased under the Home Buyers' Plan - The maximum amount you can withdraw from your registered retirement savings plan under the Home Buyers' Plan increased from $25,000 to $35,000 for withdrawals made after March 19, 2019.

CANNABIS AS A MEDICAL EXPENSE - Certain cannabis products bought for a patient for medical purposes are eligible for the medical expense tax credit.

The patient must:

be a holder of a medical document as defined in the Cannabis Regulations be registered as a client of the holder of a licence for sale; and make their purchases from the holder of a licence for sale they are registered with.

TUITION AND ENROLMENT CERTIFICATE - The new T2202, Tuition and Enrolment Certificate replaces T2202A, Tuition and Enrolment Certificate for the 2019 and following tax years. Flying schools and clubs will now report information on the new T2202

KINSHIP CARE PROVIDERS - For 2009 and later years, for the Canada workers benefit and the former working income tax benefit, a care provider may be considered to be the parent of a child in their care, regardless of whether they receive financial assistance from a government under a kinship care program. As a result, the care provider may be entitled to claim the child as an eligible dependent for purposes of claiming the benefit.

Also, for these years, financial assistance payments received by care providers under a kinship care program are not included in income and not included when determining entitlement to benefits and credits based on income.

COMMUNAL ORGANIZATIONS - For 2014 and later tax years, business income earned by the trust that is allocated to a member of the communal organization is deemed to be income from a business carried on by that member. This may allow members of a communal organization to claim the Canada workers benefit for 2019 and later years and the working income tax benefit for the 2014 to 2018 tax years.
