NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

On November 11th, there will be a Remembrance Day Outdoor Service held at the Big Bras d'Or Presbyterian Church Cenotaph.

The Service will start at 10:50 am. It is asked you wear a mask and respect social distancing.

The Service is expected to take approximately 20 to 30 minutes. In the event of inclement weather, the Service will still take place, however you can remain in your vehicle and tune into 90.1 FM on your radio to hear the Service.

Once the Service is over, all are welcome to place their poppy on the white cross at the Cenotaph if you wish to do so.

It has been a trying time for all during the last couple of years. Regardless, we will not forget.

I'm a big fan of Ed Sheeran's music; he consistently manages to find the perfect balance between writing and performing catchy pop songs with ones that have so much depth and meaning. This is Ed's new album "=" (equals) and I actually watched the album's first single on YouTube in June and fell in love with the number 1 hit song "Bad Habits". It's another great example of Sheeran's skills, and the video is over the top silly and fun. Second up was the song "Shivers", and this one again has that perfect pop vibe with a great beat-however, just before that Ed put out the promotional single "Visiting Hours". This number is a gut punch and I challenge anyone with a heart to not be deeply moved by the song as Ed sings about wanting to talk to a loved one who has passed on. Ed revealed that the single was written about his friend Michael Gudinski (a powerful and significant Australian record executive who's legacy is amazing) whom Ed described as "a father figure and mentor". Cue the Kleenex if you watch the music video. Ed said that for him this is one of the most important songs on the album. The album's actual opening song "Tides" is a rocking guitar driven song that has Ed singing "I am grown up I am a father now..." but still loving "getting out of my mind" but feels "embarrassed 'bout the things that I did in my youth/Coz now I have a child I know one day that she'll go through it." As for some of the other songs, "Love In Slow Motion" is a great number that really has a lot of heart and soul, and "First Times" is very intimate and personal with Ed's actual wedding proposal in the lyrics; "you said Darling are you joking and I said please". He looks back in a melancholy way on an old relationship with the lyrics "the cards were stacked against us both-I will always love you for what it's worth" yet can still show us he doesn't take himself too seriously on "Collide" singing "fumbled in cubicles in Tokyo and been to funerals in rented clothes..we drank your father's whiskey when your grandma died". The album closes with "Be Right Now" as Ed suggests we live in the moment. Great advice from a great album.

SOLDIER POET

A soldier now a poet, his rifle now a pen.
Pours thoughts on paper, shared by fellow man.
Thoughts of D Day Landings, comrades side by side.
Settling the issue by turning the tide.

A soldier now a poet his rifle now a pen.
word he composes ease wartime pain.
Pain inflicted six years on the line,
witnessing the blood shed forever on his mind.

A soldier now a poet his rifle now a pen.
Returns to a country thankful to be home again.
Never, never forgetting taste of battle field fear.
Laid down his pen shed a veteran's tear

In memory of Don Garnier from North Sydney, NS who served overseas with The Cape Breton Highlanders in World War 2 returned home a soldier poet.

In Flanders Fields - John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.
