Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

AROUND THE TOWN

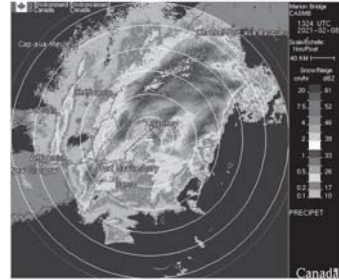

It was only a matter of time - we dodged many winter storms but finally got hit with a major snow dump - the streets (in Sydney at least) were quickly plowed and salted and opened in reasonable time - I am so very lucky (and appreciative) that my wonderful neighbours clear my driveway and front walk with their snowblowers - both my doors were unable to open due to high drifts and they quickly cleared away the snow - thank you for your "good neighbourliness" - Super Bowl 55 is in the books and I correctly predicted the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the winners - I admit that they were the underdogs but I was hoping for Tom Brady to win his 7th Super Bowl - I had the 31 points for Tampa right but I, along with many sports observers, did not expect to see the 31-9 lopsided score - It just goes to show you what can happen when you are and underdog..... we would like to welcome a new advertiser to our paper, Betty-Jo Kehoe, Sales Representative for Royal LePage-Anchor Realty in North Sydney, see her contact information on page 3 if you are interested in property or land on the Northside.... we would also like to acknowledge Cst. Paul Ratchford with his insights on the Clifford Street Youth Centre.... Happy Valentines Day to all our readers, we wish you all a very pleasant and Happy Day - see page 2 to see how much you know about Valentines Day..... DJ Jack Cool has two interviews this week, one with legendary Tommy Chong and another Cape Breton legend Matt Moinglewood - see Jack's column on page 6 for details on how to listen to the interviews..... Spaghetti Dinner Saturday, February 13th from 3:00 - 5:00 pm Boisdale Fire Hall, see details on page 3 of this issue..... This week's TAX TIPS has information of a new CRA Tax deduction for digital news, see page 8 for details on how to apply this credit.... For those who like to check the weather in detail, there are two resources - Environment Canada has the daily summary but also a Weather Satellite view that is quite helpful to see the cloud coverage and the Nova Scotia government has the Highway cams that give you a visual view of the actual highway conditions..... FREE PUBLICITY - If your community group or organization is planning a local event and you want some free publicity, simply email us your information and we will make sure it gets included on our weekly paper - it's FREE, just email us with your community event at - thisweek@kleeradio.com

Useful Weather Resources

For those of you who want more detailed weather information, it is available online from several government websites.

Environment Canada has a detailed weather report and a Weather Satellite view that gives a clear picture of any weather and also precipitation.

This chart shows Cape Breton and it is in color on the website. The various colors indicate the amount of precipitation and cloud cover.

This comes in handy if you are planning to travel by car.

The second resource is the Nova Scotia Highway Cams which feature a visual view of the actual highway and they cover the entire province. Similar cam views are also available in other provinces.

Clifford Street and so much more!

I am in the throw's of getting our thank you cards and photos done up for all those folks that kindly made a donation to Clifford Street Youth Centre this past holiday. I hope you all are doing well... the kids truly appreciated the kindnesses.

It is worth noting that the past year has been tough on all of us for many reasons but I have noticed that if your "intersections of life" including addiction, poverty, caring for family, employment issues and such have been hard on you then it has been really tough this past year... that all said here we all are full of optimism for 2021~ and that includes the kids!

The centre has been busy preparing Valentine day cards for area seniors along with thank you cards for Christmas.

Some to the kids received hoverboards as a gift... and could be seen whipping around the neighborhood up til last week! Others were out on scooters, playing street hockey and so on.. all these March/April activities!!!!

Destiny has proven to be a true asset... she has really got things hopping along with the kids ~ even if we see fewer than normal. We still receive food donations and the kids have been inhaling it happily. [thanks again btw]

I will be penning some more articles coming up... please stay tuned... the kids will have some stories for you... if you have any questions or concerns, donations or requests call our office and leave a clear message.. talk slow and clear lol.. thanks again on behalf of the kids whose year you made!!!

Paul Ratchford, Destiny, and the kids of Clifford Street Youth Centre.. all kids welcome!

I had the pleasure last week of interviewing musician Matt Minglewood who is famous for songs like Mm and the Boys, Can't You See, East Coast

Blues and How High Is High Enough.

Matt Minglewood was born Roy Alexander Batherson on January 31st, 1947.

Minglewood played with the first band in 1966 The Rockin' Saints where he used his real name Roy Batherson.

He also played with other bands such as Cold Duck Peppertree but his most popular band would have to have been Universal Power which he performed with Richard Boudreau who we know today as Sam Moon and other great band members.

If you would like to hear my interview with Matt please send me an email djack@gmail.com and I'll be glad to send you a copy have a great week - JACK

Since we're now a little over a month into 2021 I thought it was time for some cheese, or what I thought might be visual cheese-because the one thing that cheese and movies share in common is that they both can be rank-or delightful. I read about the new Canadian movie "P.G.-Psycho Goreman" in Canada's Rue Morgue magazine, and it peaked my interest; the story line being about a brother and sister (played by Nita-Josée Hanna and Owen Myre) who accidentally resurrect an ancient otherworldly overlord (played to perfection by Matt Ninaber) and he wants to destroy the world-and the galaxy. The creature FX in this flick are super-cool and well done, and Nita-Josée Hanna absolutely steals this movie by being a tough as nails little girl with a wicked sense of humour. It's a shame that the movie is rated 18A (there's no nudity-it's all graphic violence and cursing) because this is the kind of stuff most tweens would eat up. I also read about "Ten Minutes To Midnight" in Rue Morgue; this one tells the tale of radio DJ Amy Marlowe (played by Caroline Williams) as she does another late shift, not knowing that it's her last night on the air, as she actually trains her 'fresh out of college' and sleeping with the boss replacement Sienna (Nicole Kang). Without giving too much of the story line away let's just say that getting bit by a bat makes things go bonkers (or does it?) but guess what-it doesn't matter because this movie is not cheese-it's a big steaming pile of poop, absolute 100% crap. The filmmakers obviously pay homage to 1980's era horror flicks but lack the ingenuity or cleverness to pull it off properly. Plus, the ending is just embarrassing. Shame on you Erik Bloomquist for producing something that wastes a person's hour and 12 minutes, and my advice to him is that if you're going to pay homage to past horror icons-make something that DOES NOT smell like a pig farm in August. It gets under my craw when you read about something that sells the sizzle-with no substance. This movie is the worst thing I've seen in a long time. So there you have it-2 movies that are at the polar opposites of the cheese spectrum; 1 is sweet and savory, the other is like Limburger cheese, smelling like stinky feet and vomit.

NORTH SYDNEY FIRE & RESCUE HEATING SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

There is something about the Winter months and curling up with a good book by the fireplace. But did you know that heating equipment is one of the leading causes of home fire deaths? With a few simple safety tips and precautions you can prevent most heating fires from happening.

Be warm and safe this Winter!

- Keep anything that can burn at least three-feet (one metre) away from heating equipment, like the furnace, fireplace, wood stove, or portable space heater.
- Have a three-foot (one metre) "kid-free zone" around open fires and space heaters.
- Never use your oven to heat your home.
- Have a qualified professional install stationary space heating equipment, water heaters or central heating equipment according to the local codes and manufacturer's instructions.
- Have heating equipment and chimneys cleaned and inspected every year by a qualified professional.
- Remember to turn portable heaters off when leaving the room or going to bed.
- Always use the right kind of fuel, specified by the manufacturer, for fuel burning space heaters.
- Make sure the fireplace has a sturdy screen to stop sparks from flying into the room. Ashes should be cool before putting them in a metal container. Keep the container a safe distance away from your home.
- Test smoke alarms at least monthly.

HEATING EQUIPMENT SMARTS

Install wood burning stoves following the manufacturer's instructions or have a professional do the installation.

All fuel burning equipment should be vented to the outside to avoid carbon monoxide (CO) poisoning.

Install and maintain CO alarms to avoid the risk of CO poisoning. If you smell gas in your gas heater, do not light the appliance. Leave the home immediately and call your local fire deptment or gas company.
