NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

No doubt most of you have seen "Bohemian Rhapsody" by now, and what a magnificent biopic it was. That's actually why I am revisiting it because after watching a number of other ones lately this film is without a doubt the best biopic I have seen thus far. When I first saw pictures of Rami Malek as Freddie Mercury my jaw dropped. It was spooky just how much he looked like the lead singer of Queen. Later on I saw a trailer for the movie when I was in the theatre to watch another film, and that trailer made me want to see "Bohemian Rhapsody" so bad. The film's chronicling of the band's early years was priceless to watch-with Freddie being an over-the-top and larger than life character from day 1. He never came across as arrogant though, it was a level of confidence in totally knowing what he was capable of, and what others were as well, combined with his British cheekiness that equalled a talent we have not seen the likes of since his passing in 1991. As amazing as it was to see Rami's transformation into Freddie Mercury, it was just as amazing to see Gwilym Lee cast as Brian May, Joseph Mazello ("Jurassic Park") as Roger Deacon and Ben Hardy as Roger Taylor. The guys WERE Queen on the big screen. Another casting coup was getting Mike Myers to play a fictional EMI Records executive who had the classic line "We need a song teenagers can bang their heads to in a car. Bohemian Rhapsody is not that song." Um...tell that to Wayne and Garth-right? There's a great Canadian angle to the music in the film as well; for the songs actual recordings of Freddie Mercury were cut with some vocals by Rami and Canadian singer Marc Martel; people will know Marc as the winner of a contest organized by the surviving members of Queen, his numerous appearances with Queen onstage, his killing it on YouTube with fantastic videos and performances on TV shows like "Ellen". Marc also spent over 14 years on tour with his own band "Downhere", and his own Queen tribute act. Plus, Marc looks quite a bit like Freddie Mercury. As a side note-check out Marc's website and his music videos where the spirit of Freddie Mercury can definitely be heard.

Veterans Banner Project Re-Scheduled

On Saturday October 15th from 2:00 - 4:00 pm the North Sydney Historical Society, The North Sydney Fire Department and Royal Canadian Legion Br 19 will be hosting an Open House to kickstart this years Veterans Banner Project.

This endeavour was undertaken last year and was a huge success. It was a way for all involved to honour our deceased North Sydney Veterans who deserve this recognition.

After last years project we now have the support of our neighbour Marine Atlantic as a funding partner and we are so appreciative to have them.

Also this year Veterans Affairs Canada has also come on board to help facilitate the program and in 2021 we were fortunate to have a contribution from CBRM.

The general public have embraced the program and many have paid to commission a banner for their loved one. We do hope that our open house is well attended and it's a way for us to share and show this year and last years banners.

Please accept this as your formal invitation to join us on October 15th at the North Sydney Legion.

$100 FIONA REFUND TENANTS CAN APPLY

Residential property owners and tenants can apply for a one-time reimbursement of $100 to help cover food loss from Hurricane Fiona.

Apply for financial assistance to help with food loss from Hurricane Fiona. You can receive $100 if you qualify for the Fiona Food Cost Reimbursement Program.

The Fiona Food Cost Reimbursement Program helps residential property owners and tenants with the cost to replace food lost due to Hurricane Fiona. Businesses are not eligible for the reimbursement.

ELIGIBILITY - Residential property owners and tenants can apply for financial assistance if:

- the power was out for at least 48 hours due to Hurricane Fiona

- you own, rent or lease the property - Only 1 person per household can apply.

AROUND THE TOWN

Well Fiona took a bite out of us but we're "still alive and cooking" as they say there was a lot of damage and so many trees were down - one fell on my property and missed the car by about 4 feet - thank God for that - it will be some time before everything is cleaned up..... A Special Thank You has to go out to the Nova Scotia Power crews who have been working from early morning to late at night to get power back to everyone - our neighbours were on hand to offer assistance with cleaning up the branches and trees on my lawn and provide hot meals on their camp stoves, thank you to all who helped out..... I attended a Free Concert by Kenny Walsh of Friday night it was nice to hear some live music and see our neighbours enjoying a little bit of music on a sunny Friday evening - we need more of Kenny and less of Fiona - thank you Kenny for your musical contribution..... check out the story opposite this column and read all about Jennifer MacDonald who is launching her new song "I'm Home - A Cape Breton Love Song" - you can hear the song on K-LEE RADIO and Jennifer will be at the Bras d'Or Yacht Club on October 23rd - stop by and say hello..... On Saturday October 8th from 2:00 - 4:00 pm, the North Sydney Historical Society, The North Sydney Fire Department and Royal Canadian Legion Branch 19 will be hosting an Open House to kickstart this years Veterans Banner Project..... we have received our first advertisement for a Christmas Craft Show at St. Theresa's Hall in Sydney on October 14, 15 and 16th - this is a sure sign that the Fall is here.... see page 3 for details about the $100 Fiona Relief Fund available from the Nova Scotia government - the application is very easy to complete also see page 5 for the $500 Seniors Care Grant - both of these programs are available for home owners as well and renters, so take advantage of these free programs.... FREE PUBLICITY, simply email us with your information and we'll publish it free of charge in our weekly paper - just email us with your event information to us at this email address - thisweek@kleeradio.com

Jennifer MacDonald Releases New Song

Jennifer MacDonald is a recording artist from Sydney, Nova Scotia. She has been performing for over 10 years at concerts, special services & events, community fundraisers & telethons and serves as a pianist/choir director at several local churches.

In 2015, she released four gospel recordings as her first solo project at Coda Recording Studio with Kim Lantz. She followed several years later with a version of In the Bleak Midwinter - arranged and produced by Bob Quinn.

Her most recent recording, I'm Home (A Cape Breton Love Song) is being released on September 19, 2022. This marks her first original single and it was recorded at LJJ Studios with Lawrence J Lelievre and David Burke.

When not writing or recording, Jennifer can be found performing live. Most recently she has been playing for the summer/fall season at The North Star Hotel in Louisbourg. She also continues to play locally throughout the CBRM and maintains her business offering musical services of special services and events.

She will be playing at the Bras d' Or Yacht Club on October 23rd from 4:00 - 7:00 pm. She is planning a Release Party in November in Sydney.
