NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

It's not often that I'm surprised by a legacy band's latest musical release, and for those who only think of The Proclaimers as that bespectacled Scottish duo forever locked in "I'm Gonna Be" land (BTW-that song has sold well into the millions around the world) this album will be a bit of a surprise, but it really shouldn't as the duo are known for their support of Scottish independence and Welsh independence as well. "Dentures Out" is basically a protest album-starting off with the title track that skewers Britain, calling it a toothless hag. The following lyrics show that the fun-loving twins Charlie and Craig Reid have very political views to spread and do so with a bit of satire and sarcasm; "Blame the jocks and blame the paddies, blame the scourge of absent daddies, proof there is, if proof were needed that the right-wing press succeeded." However, the song is very uptempo and catchy, with a great music video as well. Continuing on, the boys do keep the tempo riding high on "Praise", "Drop Dead Destiny" and "The Recent Past" (with Manic Street Preachers frontman James Dean Bradfield on guitar) and this song sounds the most like The Proclaimers of old. The boys also tackle the practice of using nostalgia for political gain on the rocking "The World That Was", and then address staying locked in the present on "Things As They Are" with the biggest irony being how the Reid twins can keep things sounding so darn happy-go-lucky on the surface, with deeper and darker lyrics. As for some of the other songs, "Play The Man" has a really nice 'United Kingdom meets Country music' vibe and the same can be said for the song "What The Audience Knew". Craig and Charlie Reid have been strumming and singing for close to 40 years now, toured the world and sold millions of albums-yes their commercial heyday was in the late 1980's but the boys have released 12 albums thus far, and this one is a musical feather in their cap.

May Every Day Be Remembrance Day

My story is about a soldier, a soldier so strong,
so true.

This soldier could be your brother , my advice
I give to you,

Give him something to cherish, a salute, a hug,
a smile, thumbs up, a wink

a warm handshake, a letter from distant isle .

Don't just one day acknowledge, but all the year
straight through,

Keep him in your memory , one day be leaving
you,

May every day be Remembrance Day, especially in your heart - hold him in all Reverence - you know one day he'll part.

St. Andrew's Church – Fall Ceilidh

Well usually this time of year the weather is getting colder and we are all to be inside, but boy what great weather we are having. Well no matter what the weather is like, the folks at St. Andrew's are putting off a Fall Ceilidh with the group Chalk Dust on Friday, November 18th in the church hall.

Thinking back to early February in 2020, I remember Chalk Dust was playing and we had a nice crowd enjoying the music and entertainment. Then the next day we were all asked to Stay Home due to Covid had taken over everyone's lives. That was two years ago recalls Rita Johnston of St. Andrew's. I recall it was a great night when Chalk Dust performed, our church hall was packed and everyone was really getting into the mood. There was a special visit by Archie Alex of Mabou, a character that was made up by Jimmie Campbell, one of the Band Members. Archie Alex had everyone laughing out loud. Then we had tea, coffee, fudge, cookies for sale, all for a dollar and everyone loved it.

Now that Covid is eased but not gone away, St. Andrew's decided it was time to bring back this wonderful group to have a Fall Ceilidh to put a little enjoyment in everyone's life before the cold winter weather sets in. So on Friday, November 18, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. St. Andrew's will again be having a night of music and entertainment with Chalk Dust. This band is made up of teachers and retired teachers and they are Ian MacDonald, Roy Dawson, Jimmie Campbell and Jennifer MacDonald. They sing everything from Rock and Roll to old time Country hits. During the concert there will be tea, coffee, cookies, water and more for sale at the low price of $1.00

So if you need a night to relax and enjoy yourself, then St. Andrew's is the place you will want to be. Bring a friend or bring the whole family. Admission is just a Free Will Offering at the door in support of our ongoing roof fund. So mark your calendars for Friday, November 18, at 7:00 p.m at St. Andrew's for a night of good music and entertainment. You never know who you will meet there. See you then.
