NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

I like when literary classics are made into films, and Ray Bradbury's 1953 novel "Fahrenheit 451" is indeed a literary classic. The novel was first adapted for film in 1966 by Pinewood studios in England, and was pretty faithful to the book. The story is set in what is described as a dystopian future where society is tightly controlled, and the government sends out "firemen" to destroy all literature, to prevent freethinking and revolution. Sounds familiar-right? In this 2018 remake, "451", some changes were made to reflect the times; the only reading allowed is on the internet, called "the 9", where everything is censored and most books are banned, and burned by the "firemen" if found. The firemen are part of the "Ministry", a fascist dictatorship who blames unhappiness, mental illness, and questioning authority on reading the wrong books. Guy Montag is a fireman who never questions his duty, and believing that if he follows his fireman father's footsteps he's making a difference in protecting society. This all comes to an end (or a new beginning) when he meets an informant named Clarisse, who makes him question his actions, beliefs and convictions by sharing the real history of America-and the rise of the Ministry. Guy is played by Michael B. Jordan; he was also in "Black Panther", "Creed" and "Justice League". In this case Michael Shannon is his boss (Captain Beatty) and brought a smoldering intensity (no pun intended) to the role, as he upstages Jordan throughout the story. That's not a shot at Jordan-it's just a fact. Mel Gibson was planning to direct this movie, with Tom Cruise as the lead-but conflicting schedules nixed those plans. Brad Pitt was also being considered for the lead role. Author Ray Bradbury never did scientifically confirm that "451 degrees Fahrenheit" was the point where books would burn-he got the 'guesstimate' from a fire chief. Bradbury liked the answer for a title and went with it. All in all, this movie is good but the 1966 version is better-and the book version is the best.

- TAX TIPS 2022 -

CLAIMS FOR COVID-RELATED WORK EXPENSES - Did you work from home at least some of the time this year? You can still claim a deduction for home office expenses. "In 2020, eligible employees who worked remotely could deduct up to $400 in home expenses from their taxable income, without the need to keep receipts or get a signed T2200 form from their employer. The government has promised to extend the simplified deduction through the 2022 tax year, and to increase the allowable amount to $500.

SELF-EMPLOYED? HOW MUCH ARE YOU SETTING ASIDE?

If you're self-employed, no one is deducting taxes from your income—it's your responsibility to allocate funds to cover your tax bill. "As a general rule, you should always set aside 25% of your income for taxes. You're taxed only on your net income, which is your total income minus all your expenses. Look for line 104 on your tax return where it says 'employment income not on a T4 slip.' This is where you report your business income."

THE TAX DEDUCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR SMALL BUSINESS OWNERS

- There are several business expenses that may be eligible for tax deductions, if you're a business owner. It helps to have a solid tracking system for your operating costs. "A sole proprietorship or your share of a partnership is reported on your personal tax return—generally on form T2125 Statement of Business or Professional Activities. The statement itself gives a good sense of the types of expenses that are eligible for business expenses, but CRA also provides a good summary."

INVESTING AS A TAX-SAVINGS STRATEGY - Should you put your money in a tax-free savings account (TFSA) or registered retirement savings plan (RRSP)? Here's what to consider. "With a TFSA, you pay tax on money you've earned before you make a contribution; and with an RRSP you get a tax refund now on money you contribute, but will have to pay tax later, on money you withdraw from the plan. This difference, along with your income, your investment timeline, and other factors will all contribute to making the right decision for your investment dollars. You may find that you can use both vehicles simultaneously."

RECENTLY DIVORCED? DIVIDING INVESTMENTS AND CAPITAL GAINS

- The end of a marriage can be costly for both parties involved. But at least they can avoid paying extra taxes when they divide their investments. "Normally, when assets are transferred between spouses, a capital gain resulting from a subsequent sale would be attributed back to the original spouse on sale. This is called spousal attribution. Attribution does not apply if the asset was transferred as a result of a separation or divorce, whether you are common-law or legally married."

MY GRANDFATHER'S CAT CELEBRATES 100 ADOPTIONS

My Grandfather's Cat is celebrating completing 100 adoptions after launching just 18 months ago.

"Our 100th adoption is a huge milestone for us," says Angela Rafuse, founder. "We have provided comfort to more than 100 seniors, terminally ill people and their families by finding homes for their beloved pets. It has truly been an honour."

My Grandfather's Cat is a registered Canadian charity that helps seniors and terminally ill people arrange second forever homes for their pets before they move into retirement homes or pass away. They provide their service for free and are operational across Canada.

The organization was inspired by our founder's experience adopting her grandfather's cat, Mackenzie, when he passed away. Knowing the only options at the time were to adopt Mackenzie or take her to a shelter, she adopted her in December 2019. After learning that thousands of families face this reality, she launched the service on May 18, 2021, her grandfather's birthday.

GRANT'S TIMELY HOROSCOPE

Aries (March 21- April 19) - This is a serious day, which is why you will take a serious approach to whatever you do. In fact, this is a smart thing for you to do because you are high viz. today. You are noticed. Discussions with older friends or members of groups will focus on your responsibilities to others.

Taurus (April 20- May 20) - You create the impression of being serious, responsible and conscientious today, which for the most part, you actually are. (Yes, you have your hedonistic side but let's not go there.) Today you're concerned with creating a conservative reliable impression on others, especially bosses and VIPs.

Gemini (May 21- June 20) - It will be easy for you to study today because you will take a serious approach to whatever you do. Likewise, discussions about higher education, medicine, publishing, the law and perhaps travel and foreign countries will be down to business.

Cancer (June 21- July 22) - Conversations about shared property, inheritances, insurance disputes and anything to do with taxes and debt will be productive today because you will take a no-nonsense, practical approach to everything. You want to cross your t's and dot those i's.

Leo (July 23- Aug. 22) - A conversation with a close friend, spouse or partner will focus on serious matters today. You might discuss the division of labour or how to share expenses. This is an excellent time to take a professional approach to organizing and planning things.

Virgo (Aug. 23- Sept. 22) - Responsibilities related to your job will be your top priority today. In fact, this is an excellent day for planning and organizing things because you are concerned with form and order because you want to make your life run more smoothly. This might extend to ideas about your health. And your pet.

Libra (Sept. 23- Oct. 22) - Organizational work related to social events, sports and the education of children will flow well today because you want to take care of duties and responsibilities related to those areas. You're ready to deny any immediate gratifications to finish the job.

Scorpio (Oct. 23- Nov. 21) - Your responsibilities to a parent or an older family member will come first today. This is not a cozy day for family relationships. However, it's a strong day to get practical things done, and to make serious decisions that require commitment and follow-through.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22- Dec. 21) - You can learn a lot today because you are willing to focus and study. This is not a frivolous day for you. Au contraire! Discussions with siblings, relatives and neighbours will deal with about serious, practical matters and who is responsible for what. Establish boundaries and expectations.

Capricorn (Dec. 22- Jan. 19) - This is an excellent day to take a serious look at your possessions and finances. Figure out what you own and what you owe. This is also a good day to establish a budget or study your spending habits. If shopping, you will want to buy things that are practical and long-lasting.

Aquarius (Jan. 20- Feb. 18) - Today the Sun and Saturn are lined up in your sign, which makes you focus on the duties and responsibilities you have to others and those around you. You can accomplish a lot today; and much of what you do will have a long-lasting significance to yourself and others. Roll up your sleeves and get busy!

Pisces (Feb. 19- March 20) - You're happy to work alone or behind the scenes today. Nevertheless, you will accomplish a lot because you are focused and serious. In particular, you will be successful at doing research or discovering solutions to old problems and answers to questions that you have. Someone older might help you.
