GRADING DAY BIKE

The Summer of 1961 holds a fond memory for me. I was 12 years old and for grading that year, I got an brand new CCM Bike.

My dreams had come true! I couldn't wait to join my friends and explore the whole town on my shiny new bike with handle bar streamers to boot.

I was literally in Heaven driving around the neighbourhood and I thought I was invincible (did I mention I was 12?)

Things were going great until I decided I would,jump a ditch like I was Evil Kneival. I didn't make it. I hit the edge of the ditch, flew over the handlebars and when I got up, there was my shiny new bike with a busted front wheel.

I sat there with tears in my eyes wondering how I was going to explain this to my parents.

I finally got up and hauled my bike to the local Hardware store and told my tale of woe to the manager, Mr. Donovan.

He had 3 boys of his own and appreciated my situation. He fixed the bike with a new wheel and let me pay it off over the Summer from money I got cutting lawns and running errends.

I never forgot his kindness and I never again was reckless with my new bike.

Happy Grading Day everybody!!

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Take 2

PAUL POWER

Anatomy of a song: "She's just 16 years old leave her alone, they said, separated by fools who don't know what love is yet but I want you to know..." many of you will recognize these lyrics from the massive 1980 hit song 'Into The Night' by Benny Mardones. From day 1 the lyrics were problematic and questionable-but here's the real story: Mardones and songwriter Robert Tepper were at their apartment in Miami and were neighbours with a family there-a mother, a father, two teen girls, and a teenage boy. One day, the father abandoned the family, leaving the mother and children destitute. Mardones wanted to help in any way he could and started paying the teens to do odd jobs like walking his dog, or picking up groceries at the store. The teen who walked his dog was the middle child, a 16-year-old girl named Heidi. One morning, after having spent most of the night working on the main riff from 'Into the Night' Heidi, dressed for school in a rather adult fashion, came to walk the dog. When Tepper made a stray remark after she left Mardones shut him down saying "Pal, she's just 16 years old, leave her alone." Mardones later went on to do interviews with Heidi to clear up the controversy-and that also helped lift her family out of poverty. Heidi eventually married a millionaire and has a wonderful life. Another interesting thing about this song is that it had 2 successful runs-the original in 1980 and again in 1989 when an Arizona radio segment by L.A. DJ Scott Shannon added the song to his playlist, ultimately rocketing the song back onto the national charts, on May 6, 1989. So now you know...the rest of the story.

OUT OF THE MOUTH OF BABES

Earlier this year I was approached by one of my kindergarteners in tears.

I asked her what was wrong. "____ just called me a baby!" I called the other little girl over and said," Did you just call ____a baby?"

"No, no, no!" shouted the little girl. "I said 'Hey baby!'

You know like my Mom says to Dad when she calls him and wants him to come over for the night."
