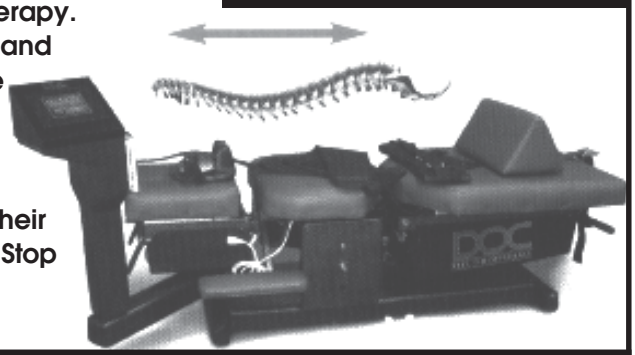
NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

We've got your back!
Strong Chiropractic Inc.

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.



793 Mahon St., New Waterford - 862-9444 224 Commercial St. North Sydney - 241-9444

Juno Beach was the Allied code name for a 10 km stretch of French coastline assaulted by Canadian soldiers on D-Day, June 6th, 1944, during the Second World War. The Canadian Army's 3rd Infantry Division and 2nd Armoured Brigade seized the beach and its seaside villages while under intense fire from German defenders — an extraordinary example of military skill, reinforced by countless acts of personal courage. The 3rd Infantry Division took heavy casualties in its first wave of attack but took control of the beach by the end of the day. More than 14,000 Canadian soldiers landed or parachuted into France on D-Day. The Royal Canadian Navy contributed 110 warships and 10,000 sailors and the RCAF contributed 15 fighter and fighter-bomber squadrons to the assault. There were 1,074 Canadian casualties, including 359 killed.

Take 2

PAUL POWER

I want to start off by stating that what follows is my opinion only-some may agree, some may not-so let's go. Being the huge science fiction fan that I am I honestly thought that after seeing the trailer for the movie 'Project Hail Mary' that I was in for a great viewing experience....nope, nein, nada. The film stars Ryan Gosling (you know-the dude that basically plays the same character ad infinitum) as an astronaut who suddenly wakes up from an induced coma aboard a spaceship, not knowing what the heck's going on. He soon learns/remembers that he is a middle school teacher and a molecular biologist who has been tasked with saving the earth from a dimming sun, and thus total global extinction. Granted, the special effects and storyline are pretty good but the directors Phil Lord and Christopher Miller crapped the bed when they introduced the alien being (an Edirian) that looks like a cross between boulders and a spider. What follows is a string of lame jokes that make Grogu seem cool. Yep, I said it; as a lifelong 'Star Wars' fan I look at Baby Yoda as the Jar Jar Binks of the new millennium. I get why kids like Grogu, and that some adults like that cuddly little green guy too but I often wonder was it more of a marketing ploy (yeah I know, that's always been a big part of the Star Wars franchise) to create him-and yes I don't care for Yoda either (Blasphemy! LOL). I know that there have been some good reviews of this film-and that some people think that Ryan Gosling is the cat's meow-present company excluded. Thank God I saw this movie for free because if I had of spent money at the theatre to see it I'd feel robbed.

GLEN GRAY - EDITOR

People are complaining about the light snow and cold weather we had last week. My mother, an avid gardener, always said "Don't plant flowers until the first full moon in June" and it appears thatis the case here - it was very strange that we had a hea warning not too long ago and then we had a snowfall..... well, my beloved Canadiens finally succumed in the Stanley Cup finals but I have to say that they made a good showing and were the only Canadian team left in the running, wait until next year!!! ..... the Barra MacNeils, hailing from Sydney Mines, have just achieved an impressive milestone with 40 years in the music business, this is an outstanding performance for the very talented family and we salute them for their excellence..... June 6th is D-DAY and we salute all the veterans, past and present, who volunteered in this world changing event - a special D-Day celebration will take place at the Branch 19 Legion in North Sydney with a march to the Cenotaph and a social to follow in the Legion beginning at 5:45..... WEEKLY SMILE

The candidates for political office were campaigning in the Iona area where a big podium was set up at the Highland Village grounds.

The various politicians got up to the podium and one of them heard the words, "Boom paw" from the crowd after one of his remarks. He then began to promise them better roads, more jobs, less taxes and the crowd reacted enthusiastically with "Boom paw" each time.

The politician finally walked off the stage and as one of the Highland Village staff shooed a cow away from the stage.

"Mighty fine speech sir," was her reply. "Come this way to the main building but be careful you don't step in the boom paw!"

"Does anyone know where Toronto is?" asked the substitute.

Young Daryl answered quickly, "I think they're in Philadelphia for a doubleheader."

Good Samaritan Tale

Posted recently by Juanita LeBlanc. She stopped into the Irving garage in North Sydney, got some items and when she got to the cashier, she couldn't find her money.

She went outside to look and then a kind hearted stranger came by and said he paid for her purchases.

Where else but Cape Breton would something like this happen?
