Unlike the conventional methods of rust proofing which tend to work as coating, a KROWN treatment actually displaces moisture and creeps into the inner metal fold of the vehicle - the areas where the most rust problems start. The KROWN formula remains active as an invisible barrier to repel moisture and salt and prevent it from re-entering the metal. The KROWN product can be applied in any season and weather.

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

"Hereditary" - I feel ripped off! Let me explain; I have written before that I am a fan of horror movies-but not so much the gory slasher films, I lean mostly towards gothic-old style horror movies-ones that make you think. I also read the Canadian horror magazine "Rue Morgue" every month, and they put this movie up on a pedestal, saying it may be as groundbreaking as "The Exorcist". One reviewer even wrote that after seeing the movie he was disturbed for weeks afterward. So my expectations were set high.

surviving son gets crowned as the new leader of a satanic cult that the grandmother belonged to. Yes, his mom and dad both also die gruesomely before that, paving the way for his coronation.

I love Toni Colette's acting, and have seen pretty much all of her work. BTW-she is Australian in real life, with the heavy Aussie accent to boot. Toni has been given a lot of praise for her role in this movie-but to me she was mostly just grimacing in abject horror throughout the movie, but did admittedly do a great job playing someone who is not very likeable at all. But just because a film is atmospheric, gloomy and jarring doesn't always equate true horror.

Spoiler Alert Now! In a nutshell the storyline is as follows; Toni Colette plays Annie Graham, the married mom of 2 teenagers, and she has just lost her mother. Delivering her mom's eulogy Annie touches on the deeply personal and tense relationship she had with her mother. As the movie progresses we learn more and more about how dark, twisted and evil that relationship really was. Then the family loses their 13-year-old daughter when she gets decapitated by a telephone pole (yep, you have to see it). This all leads to the main plot and twisted ending where the

I suppose in the end it's not the movie's fault for letting me down personally, or being less than what was promised-it's the reviewers, online sites and the entertainment press for selling this film as a groundbreaking and terrifying one-I didn't see that at all. I guess one consolation for horror fans like me is that the film does have some very disturbing images and scenes, the least of which is how Colette's character makes miniature homes containing disturbing and realistic scenes of her, her family and some twisted events. You might really like this movie-me, not so much.
