Unlike the conventional methods of rust proofing which tend to work as coating, a KROWN treatment actually displaces moisture and creeps into the inner metal fold of the vehicle - the areas where the most rust problems start. The KROWN formula remains active as an invisible barrier to repel moisture and salt and prevent it from re-entering the metal. The KROWN product can be applied in any season and weather.

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

"Sad Vacation: The Last Days of Sid and Nancy"

Let me just say right up front that this film is probably not for the masses-it's for fans of crime documentaries and/or fans of music documentaries (often referred to as Rockumentaries) and people like me who loved everything about the Sex Pistols. On October 12, of 1978, the girlfriend of Sid Vicious (bassist for the Sex Pistols) Nancy Spungen was found dead in room 100 of the Chelsea Hotel, in New York. Nancy was 20 years old. In less than 4 months Sid would also be dead-from a heroin overdose. He was 21 years old. Those 2 tragic events would set off a whirlwind of speculation, and beliefs of a cover-up and conspiracy as to who really killed Nancy. In 1986 director Alex Cox made the wonderfully tragic bio-pic "Sid and Nancy" about the last days of the 'born to lose' couple's tumultuous love affair. This documentary basically does the same thing-although in real-life terms, with actual footage. Huey Morgan (front man for the band Fun Lovin' Criminals) narrates the film, which details Sid's days with the Sex Pistols and Nancy's questionable life as a New York stripper, a dominatrix and a groupie. The film also shows the rough edges New York City's darker side in the late 1970's-a place custom made for a person like Sid Vicious...and Nancy Spungen. As mentioned earlier, some people believe Sid was innocent, and that a night of wild partying with others was the scenario that led to Nancy's murder, most likely while Sid was passed out. Fans of true crime programs will like the way this documentary is laid out. There are interviews with fellow musicians, friends and acquaintances-interestingly enough, Sex Pistols lead singer Johnny Rotten (John Lydon) wanted nothing to do with this production. There are also 2 striking pieces of information mentioned in the interviews; when band manager Malcolm McLaren asked a band associate how he could get rid of Nancy, to get her away from Sid the associate said "kill her", and Rockets Redglare (drug dealer and bodyguard for Sid) delivered 40 tablets of Dilaudid to Sid and Nancy the night of her murder. A number of people are on record as saying they think Rockets killed Nancy. This is a great film that does indeed ask the most important question-rather than answer it, but where Rockets Redglare died in 2001 we will never know what the truth is.
