NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

St. Andrew's Fall Fair Saturday, Oct. 27th, 2018

As the Fall colours are blossoming, it's that time of year again for Crafters and Artists to come together at Craft fairs around the region to share their work.

This year St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church is having a Vendors Fall Fair at the Sydney Mines Fire Hall on 1 Elliott Street on Saturday, October 27th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

You will see a variety of vendors displaying their beautiful works of art. The ladies of St. Andrew's will also be baking up a storm to display their homemade goodies of loaves, cookies, cakes and so much more.

There will be an admission fee of a loonie which will get you a ballot for a chance to win a goodie basket made up from products of the local vendors.

Also there will be hotdogs, pop and water for sale if you are hungry while browsing the tables.

We will also be serving Complimentary Tea and Coffee if you like a hot drink on a cold October day.

So come on by and have a look and maybe start your Christmas shopping early. If you want a one of a kind gift for that special someone, this is the place to stop and shop.

So remember the date, that's Saturday, October 27th at the Sydney Mines Fire Hall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.. Come and bring friends and family and enjoy a day of fun shopping.

Black 47 - When I first heard the name of this film I automatically thought of the great Irish band Black 47, needless to say I am a big fan of Irish music, television and especially films, and when I found out about the storyline of this movie I knew I had to see it. The film's title refers to the year 1847, the year that starvation, plague, disease and death lead to the biggest decrease in Ireland's population during the entire Great Famine (1845 - 1849) as those who survived, and could afford to, emigrated to "the Americas". The movie was filmed in Wicklow, Kildare, and Connemara (places I visited and loved) in November/December of 2016 and January of 2017-hence the dark, bleak and foreboding look to the film-basically cold and miserable, an excellent reflection of the times. The gist of the movie is that actor James Frecheville plays Irish Ranger Martin Feeney, who was fighting for the British army-he abandons his post to return to Ireland, only to discover that his mother has died of starvation, and before that his brother was hanged after stabbing a bailiff when the family was evicted from their home. Feeney finds lodging with his brother's widow and her kids-but when the landlord and the Royal Irish Constabulary comes to kick them all out there's a struggle and Feeney's nephew is shot and killed, and Feeney is arrested. He escapes jail, but only after killing every captor who stood in his way. What follows is Feeney's idea of justice as he goes "medieval" on any person he feels is responsible for the woes heaped onto his family. Not even a judge or a preacher are immune from his revenge. As mentioned earlier, the lead role is played by James Frecheville, with the wonderful Hugo Weaving,

Jim Broadbent, and Stephen Rea also play important roles in the film, with Weaving as the army investigator tasked with hunting down Feeney using any means necessary. His role in the film's ending is a treat for sure. Parts of the movie are in the Irish language (Gaelic) with subtitles included. That brogue adds to the authenticity of the story, and Frecheville is masterful at playing a common man pushed beyond comprehension to become a barbarian in the name of all that is vengeful, and in his mind just. I have seen firsthand the Famine Statues in Custom House Quay, in the Dublin Docklands, commemorating the famine, the loss of 1 million people to starvation, and another 1 million to emigration, some of whom made it to Newfoundland, here in Nova Scotia and to other provinces, and the United States. The statues are gruesome, made all the worse knowing they are accurate representations of horrors beyond imagination; it's easy to believe that this movie is also an accurate representation. It is a great film.
