NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

BY PAUL POWER

Don Felder - "American Rock 'N' Roll" - It's a pretty big deal when a former member of The Eagles releases a new album, plus the fact that Don Felder is a rock and roll legend-both as a solo artist and as a songwriter/guitarist for The Eagles. So all that makes this release even more buzz-worthy. This album hit the shelves on April 5 (it is Don's third solo effort) and he had help from some musical big hitters here; Sammy Hagar, Slash, Richie Sambora, Orianthi, Peter Frampton, Joe Satriani, Mick Fleetwood, and more stepped up to the plate to help Don hit a musical home run. The album opens up with the title track, and as expected "American Rock 'N' Roll" is a hard-driving number that honors the forefathers of rock and roll history-as Slash, Mick Fleetwood and Chad Smith (Red Hot Chili Peppers) join Don in kicking butt and taking names-literally in the lyrics. Another great number is "Rock You", which has a Bob Seger meets Kid Rock vibe to it. This stadium rocker gets some extra molten metal, courtesy of Sammy Hagar on vocals and Joe Satriani on guitar. For a really nice change Don unveils the great ballad "Sun", and the song has a real Crosby, Stills,

Nash & Young-like harmony; remember that Don is the guy that co-wrote "Hotel California" so he knows how to craft a great ballad. This song sounds so much like an early Eagles number that fans of that band will be impressed. Another great slower number is "The Way Things Have To Be" with guitar work by Peter Frampton and Leah Felder (Don's daughter) on back-up vocals. As for some of the other songs here, Canada's own Alex Lifeson bends the strings and drops some great guitar licks on "Charmed", and "Hearts On Fire" is a fun number that adds a little bit of sexy funk to the rock mix and creates a song tailor-made for Bryan Adams to cover. Also, "Limelight" does a great mid-tempo shuffle on a great track that features guitar solos by Richie Sambora and Orianthi as they both make this song sizzle and snap with a hard groove that only string-bending experts can add. As mentioned above this album is Don's third solo effort-and it's the best by far. In 1995 Lenny Kravitz sang "Rock and Roll is Dead"; of course he did say he was having fun with it, and in 2014 Gene Simmons said "Rock is finally dead-it was murdered" (by file sharing). With this album, Don Felder gives us irrefutable proof that Rock 'N' Roll lives on-and stands stronger than ever.

Who can you claim this credit for?

You may be able to claim the CCC if you support your spouse or common-law partner with a physical or mental impairment.

You may also be able to claim the CCC for one or more of the following individuals if they depend on you for support because of a physical or mental impairment: your or your spouse's or common-law partner's child or grandchild your or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece, or nephew (if resident in Canada at any time in the year)

An individual is considered to depend on you for support if they rely on you to regularly and consistently provide them with some or all of the basic necessities of life, such as food, shelter and clothing.

What amount can you claim?

The amount you can claim depends on your relationship to the person for whom you are claiming the CCC, your circumstances, the person's net income, and whether other credits are being claimed for that person.

For your spouse or common-law partner, you may be entitled to claim an amount of $2,182 in the calculation of line 303. You could also claim an amount up to a maximum of $6,986 on line 304.

For an eligible dependant 18 years of age or older (who is a person for whom you are eligible to make a claim on line 305), you may be entitled to claim an amount of $2,182 in the calculation of line 305. You could also claim an amount up to a maximum of $6,986 on line 304.
