NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

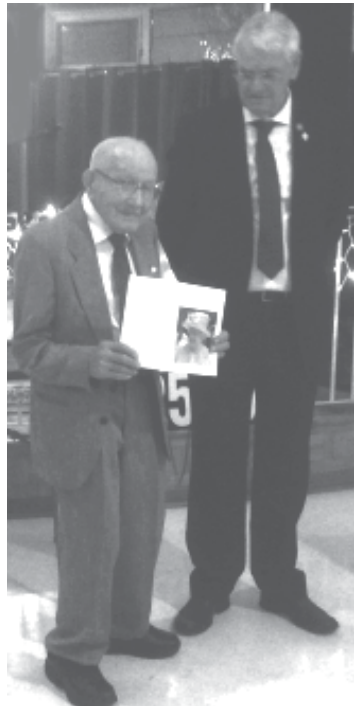

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

BY PAUL POWER

Duff McKagan -

"Tenderness" - For those of you who don't know this, Duff McKagan is the bass player for Guns N' Roses-and this is his new solo album. About this album, Duff's press release said "Tenderness" reflected his experiences traveling the globe over two and a half years on the Guns N' Roses'
"Not In This Lifetime" tour, and that
encountering heartbreak, anger, fear,
confusion
and divide on his travels during this tumultuous time in our world history,
led him to channel a collective hurt into songs of monolithic power, and that "We're becoming divided at a time when we need each other most,". So how does all that play out here? The album's namesake song is a decent slower number that is helped a bit by country outlaw Shooter Jennings (Waylon's son) and his band. Shooter also produced the album.

Conversely, the mass-media and greed shots in "Chip Away" make for a biting song, and its a decent number. But rather than describe every song here, lets' read more of the press release-for more insight; Looking at the world outside his tour bus window, McKagan saw a landscape filled with disillusion, injustice and fear.

Surveying this vista of ruin, its street littered with broken and abandoned promises, he channeled a collective hurt into songs of monolithic power. "The real point of 'Tenderness' is not for me to be some damn politician or some other voice to add to what is already way too much noise," he says. "This is a song of unity and peace...and I want this record to be a meditation

and to bring maybe some healing, if that is not too high-handed or lofty of a goal. I can use what marginal voice I have

as an artist, to hopefully help arrest what seems like a fall. As a father, I must say and do something now...because I love my girls and my wife, and I love my country, and I feel I must be strong and use my voice now, do it while I am able, or perhaps never get a chance ever again." Yes, that's heavy stuff, the songs here have strong messages, and Duff's intentions are noble; but to be honest, my biggest takeaways are negative; 1-Duff's voice (he sounds like a depressed Bob Dylan) and 2-the songs are mostly morose and depressing.

TAX TIPS COLUMN

NON-TAXABLE INCOME

Amounts which are not required to be included in income for tax purposes, so are not reported on a personal tax return, include:

- GST/HST credits
- Canada Child Benefit (CCB) payments and related provincial and territorial child benefits and credits
- disability insurance proceeds, depending on how the premiums were paid.
- most gifts and inheritances

- lottery winnings, and raffle prizes, unless the circumstances deem that the proceeds are considered income from employment, business or property, or a prize for achievement. For instance, prizes from employer-promoted contests could be considered employment income. See Folio S3-F9-C1 below. The cost basis of property which has been won as a prize in connection with a lottery scheme is deemed by s. 52(4) of the Income Tax Act (ITA) to be the fair market value at the time it is won. This means that there is no capital gain if the prize is subsequently sold, unless it is sold for more than the amount deemed to be the cost basis. If a person decided to sell the right to the prize, (e.g., sell a winning $1 million lottery ticket for $900,000), s. 40(2)(f) of the ITA deems any gain or loss from this transaction to be nil.

- subject to certain exceptions (see Folio S3-F9-C1 below), an amount received as a windfall. Factors which indicate that an amount received is a windfall, which are based on The Queen v. Cranswick, [1982] CTC 69, 82 DTC 6073 (FCA):

- the taxpayer had no enforceable claim to the payment,
- the taxpayer made no organized effort to receive the payment,
- the taxpayer neither sought after nor solicited the payment,
- the taxpayer had no customary or specific expectation to receive the payment,
