NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

We've got your back!

MANSON & BUNDY.

Welcome once again to “Take 2”-a column devoted to finding lesser-known, not always mainstream, occasionally bizarre, weird or just wonderful eye-treats for the viewing screen of your choice. This week I’m looking at 2 recent movies that are based on historical facts, aka true crime, and are quite disturbing. The first is “Charlie Says”, the chronicles of Charles Manson- more specifically the “Manson Women” - Leslie Van Houten, Susan Atkins and Patricia Krenwinkel (Lulu, Sadie and Katie-as named by Charlie). After the trials, the three young women were sentenced to death for the infamous murders, but when the death penalty was lifted, their sentences became life imprisonment. A young graduate student (played to perfection here by Merritt Weaver, from the “Nurse Jackie” series) was sent to the prison to educate the ladies, as well as help them face what they had actually done-knowing that the women were totally oblivious to the reality of their horrific crimes, having been brainwashed by Charles Manson. Another well-known face here is that of “Game of Thrones” actress

Hannah Murray-as Leslie/Lulu. She puts on an amazing performance, as does “Dr. Who’s” Matt Smith as Charles Manson. Heads up; there is a fair amount of nudity in this movie, but the story and acting are so compelling. The second movie is “Extremely Wicked, Shockingly Evil and Vile”, a story told from the viewpoint of Ted Bundy’s girlfriend Elizabeth Kendall, based on her memoir. In this movie, Bundy is played by Zac Efron. I am not much of a true crime fan per SE, but I knew enough about Ted Bundy to be blown away by Efron’s dead-on creepy portrayal of him in this feature. Coming across to the unaware and innocent as basically a charming Ken doll, Bundy used this allure and charm to woo females-with literally deadly consequences. A fair amount of the movie takes place in the courtroom, with flashbacks to some of the 30+ brutal murders Bundy committed. Right to the end Bundy tried to play the system by cooperating with police to prolong his life-while waiting on death row. This movie was made by Joe Berlinger, who also directed the previous Netflix documentary series on the killer. Both movies provide an inside look into madness and depravity, unfortunately for society-they’re both true stories.
