NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

We've got your back!

St. Andrew's Annual Summer Bible Camp a Big Success

The air was full of giggles and excitement as the first day of Summer Bible Camp kick off on Monday morning July 12 as St. Andrew's opened the doors to children from ages 4 to 12. The week started off with parents and kids signing up for registration with Barbara McIsaac, Jeanie Matthews and Annette Finlayson on the registration desk. The kids were put in age related groups and this year there were five groups in total and each group had a teacher and a helper. Our teachers this year was Sherri Stewart, Wanda Dandy, Sylvia Harrietha, Jimmie Campbell and Micheal McIsaac along with numerous helpers. It was nice to see that some of the extra helpers that we had were actually kids that went to Bible Camp before and were returning to help out.

This Summer Bible Camp has been on the go for over 80 years now at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and is open to all denominational kids from age four to twelve. Rev. Marion Barclay MacKay (organizer/director) and her group put in a lot of time organizing this event and making it special for all the kids. This year there was 27 volunteers and approximately 55 plus kids each day. The days began with a sing along with Jimmie Campbell on guitar and Jean Robertson Crouse on piano with Rev. Marion Barclay MacKay leading them in song. Then it was a 10 minute Puppet Play acting out what the bible story would be for the day and then they headed off for a Bible Story and a craft. Mid-morning saw the kids being served a cold drink and some homemade cookies by Joyce Cordy and her kitchen helpers. The congregation of St. Andrew's each year provide homemade cookies for the kids. After their snack it was off for a 15 minute recreation time in the church yard with Danielle Clarke-Gallant who was the recreation director. If you drove by at recreation time you probably saw hockey nets, beach balls and other toys that Danielle and the kids were playing with. After recreation time was over it was back to do another craft. The day ended with a short sing along and on their way home they were given a snack of the day. The kids returned each day with enthusiasm and energy to make new friends and have fun.

On Friday which was the last day of Camp, the children were asked to invite their parents and grandparents/guardians to the award ceremony which took place in the church sanctuary. This was a chance for the parents and grandparents to see just exactly what the kids had been doing all week. It started off with all the kids singing the songs which they had learned all week and a short puppet play followed by the presentation of awards by Rev. Marion Barclay MacKay. After the awards ceremony it was time for a giant picnic on the lawn. The Men's Fellowship coordinated by Bill MacDonald and Dave MacIntyre served hot dogs, pop and ice cream to everyone which was truly enjoyed on a warm afternoon. So as this year's Bible Camp came to a close we look back to see that it was yet another successful year and look forward to doing it all over again next year.

I'm not sure if many of you know of this exclusive club that's been around for over 40 years. The Hollywood Vampires legend says that more than 4 decades ago a select group of rock musicians got together on a regular basis at the legendary Rainbow Bar and Grill in Los Angeles to basically out-drink each other. The last man standing was the winner. Original members included Alice Cooper, Elton John, John Lennon, Mikey Dolenz of The Monkees, Ringo Starr, Keith Moon and a number of visitors who shall remain nameless to protect the guilty. "Rise" is actually the second album for the musical version of The Hollywood Vampires, the follow up to their 2015 self-titled debut album, and the line-up here includes Joe Perry on guitar, Johnny Depp on guitar and vocals and Alice Cooper on vocals, with guest musicians in tow. This incantation is basically the surviving members, or shall we say the 'undead' of the Hollywood Vampires. Their original musical goal was to honour the memories of rockers who died from excesses during the 1970's. "Rise" features a mix of original tracks, as well as cover songs, and the band excels on both counts. First-behind the covers; Johnny Depp's voice is amazing on David Bowie's legendary song "Heroes", with Perry's wailing guitar work adding that extra touch, and Depp absolutely kills it on "People Who Died" by the Jim Carrol Band. As if that wasn't enough, Depp shines even brighter on the ex-New York Dolls Johnny Thunder's song "You Can't Put Your Arms Around A Memory". It's not all

Depp, all the time, here though-Alice Cooper's voice actually opens the album with the sleazy rock track "I Want My Now". My favourite song on the whole album is definitely "Who's Laughing Now", as The Coop takes a swipe at society's elites who fall from grace. It's great to hear that even at the age of 71 Alice Cooper still has that evil, impish streak that made him so famous since 1971. Depp's back-up vocals are great on this track as well. Admittedly a number of the songs here do sound as if they were lifted from an Alice Cooper album; "Mr. Spider", "New Threat" and "The Boogieman Surprise" all have that politically-charged, ironic and sarcastic Cooper bite to them-which is a good thing. The album ends with a spoken-word piece, as the main three Vampires wax apocalyptic about trials, tribulations and the journeys through a hard life. The Hollywood Vampires have risen from the dead once again to feast on our.....ears. Enjoy!

In Memory Of Our Friend Ian MacDonald

We were saddened to hear of the sudden passing of our friend, Ian MacDonald. We visited each week with Ian as part of our duties to gather community news on the Northside. Ian was always professional and very helpful and we often met at community events and he contributed information and pictures.

Ian was a brilliant teacher for over 33 years and then after a brief hiatus he took a temporary gig with the MLA Constituency Office for the last 13 years, 9 of the last years with his friend and colleague, Eddie Orrell.

Ian was predeceased by his loving parents, Doug and Connie MacDonald, and the love of his life, Diane (Clarkson) MacDonald. He is survived by his loving children, Jennifer (Todd) and Sean (Amy); his pride and joy – his grandson, Eli, and step-granddaughter, Kelsey; his brothers, Stuart (Linda) and Bill (Alice), along with sister-in-law, Shirley Clarkson, and his many nieces and nephews, and cousins. Joined to mourn are many family and close friends including his uncle, Keith (Pat) MacDonald; all of Diane's extended family; close cousin, Blanche Gibbs; his friend who was like another son, Cecil Clarke, along with his companion and fellow adventurer, Ann Andrews.

Cremation has taken place and there will be no visitation at Ian's request. A memorial service celebrating Ian's life will be held on Friday, July 26, 2019, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Main Street, Sydney Mines at 2 p.m. with both Rev. Corrie Stewart and Rev. Marion Barclay McKay officiating.

Following the service, the family will celebrate Ian's life in the Church Hall.

Donations in Ian's memory may be made to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Online condolences may be sent to the family at: jmjobesfuneralhome@ns.aliantzinc.ca.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Host The Barra MacNeil's HOMETOWN CONCERT

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Sydney Mines is the place to be this summer. In August they will be hosting the hometown favorite group The Barra MacNeil's once again. For the past three years The Barra MacNeil's have been performing at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church which is also their hometown and have been putting on quite the show.

The Barra's are a crowd pleaser wherever they go and this year they have decided to return to Sydney Mines to put off yet another great show.

On Monday, August 12th at 7 p.m. they will take the stage at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to give you a fantastic evening of lively music and you may even see some step dancing. You will hear some of your favorite tunes as well as some new songs that will get your feet tapping and your hands clapping. For nearly three decades, Cape Breton-based family group the Barra MacNeils has been thrilling audiences of all ages, both near and far, with their sparkling repertoire, vocals, instrumental prowess and vibrant showmanship.

This is one show you won't want to miss this summer and it's one you can bring the whole family. Tickets are $35 each and can be purchased at Sexton's Pharmasave in Sydney Mines or Shoppers Drug Mart in North Sydney or you can Reserve yours by simply calling 902-736-2508.

So mark your calendars, that's The Barra MacNeil's in concert on Monday, August 12th at 7:00 p.m. (doors open at 6 p.m.) at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Sydney Mines. Get your tickets early!
