Unlike the conventional methods of rust proofing which tend to work as coating, a KROWN treatment actually displaces moisture and creeps into the inner metal fold of the vehicle - the areas where the most rust problems start. The KROWN formula remains active as an invisible barrier to repel moisture and salt and prevent it from re-entering the metal. The KROWN product can be applied in any season and weather.

NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

This week's column is a 2 for 1 deal-featuring 2 very disturbing movies that are 'must see' viewing for those of you who like a good jolt, with a side order of disturbia. Let's admit it, that creepy little psycho-killer doll named Chuckie has become an integral part of the lexicon of modern horror movies, so when I heard about this remake I was curious. Was that curiosity warranted? Yes, "Child's Play" is a really good remake of this classic horror flick. Plus, how's this for an extra enticement to watch; Chuckie's voice is done by Mark Hamill (who's certainly no stranger to the world of voice overs). The film also features the stellar cast of Aubrey Plaza, Gabriel Bateman and Brian Tyree Henry, all giving this franchise a cool reboot. It's also hard to believe that the producers actually found a new way to out-creep the old Chuckie doll, and also capitalize on today's obsession with all things controlled online/in the cloud. That slant is priceless, and really helps to make this film more believable-and deliciously evil. The second movie is John Travolta's latest effort; "The Fanatic", and to say that Travolta is mesmerizing in this role is an under-statement. He plays "Moose", an autistic fan of horror movie hero Hunter Dunbar (played to perfection by Devon Sawa). Moose's biggest problem is his lack of boundaries, and complete removal from reality-which ends up with deadly consequences. Things start to turn dark when Moose shows up to an autograph signing by Dunbar, only to be brushed off when a personal crisis takes Dunbar away early. Moose feels personally insulted and escalates matters when a friend of his, who is a paparazzi, naively gives Moose an app that tracks down movie star's residences; Moose sees this as his open invitation to ingratiate himself into Dunbar's life. What comes next is dark, twisted and shocking, making for a finale that will have you on the edge of your seat. Some critics were less than kind in reviewing this film-which shows how removed from the mainstream some of them can be; this movie is indeed dark and twisted, and well worth watching. By the way, the movie was directed by Fred Durst, lead singer of the band Limp Bizkit.
