NEW DECOMPRESSION TABLE RELIEVES PAIN

Darren Strong from Strong Chiropractic, announces a new, sophisticated computerized decompression table that allows the spine to be gently stretched and relaxed for spinal decompression therapy.

The pattern of alternating pulling and relaxing creates vacuum-like pressure which allows disc material that was herniated or protruded to be pulled back in the disc over time.

Patients will notice a reduction of their pain during these treatment sessions. Stop in today and ask about the new table and how you can benefit.

Take 2
 with Paul Power

Those of you who read last week's column know that it was a prelude to this week's, which is about the movie "The Disaster Artist". This movie is based on the memoir written by Greg Sestero and Tom Bissell, about Greg's friendship with Tommy Wiseau, and how they made the disastrous film "The Room" (reviewed in last week's column) which is considered to be one of-if not the worst-movies ever made.

caught up in the Wiseau moviemaking whirlwind/tornado/disaster.

Wiseau's attempts to be accepted as a serious artist and producer were initially laughed at, but in the end he achieved a level of notoriety that most first-time directors/actors could only dream of-making his movie his way, and then having an a-list Hollywood actor portray you-and your efforts in a follow-up movie that was very well-received, and a box office success (cue creepy Wiseau laugh here).

It's hard to describe in words just how fantastic this movie really is-and I made it a point to watch "The Room" first for more insight. "The Disaster Artist" ends with notes saying how no one ever found out just how old Wiseau really is, where he is from, and the fact that "The Room" was estimated to have cost close to 6 million dollars, with no indication as to where Wiseau got the money to make it. There's also an incredible montage of scene for scene recreations from "The Room" to "The Disaster Artist" that will blow your mind! Next week I will be making a 'screaming' return to writing about music-so check it out.

"The Disaster Artist" is the absolute polar opposite-this film is brilliant. First and foremost, James Franco's portrayal of Tommy Wiseau is so dead on that it's downright creepy. Wiseau has a very unique look (described by some in the movie as 'villain' like or a 'vampire') and an even more unique accent-both of which Franco totally nails. James Franco's real life brother Dave Franco also does a great job playing Greg in the movie.

There are a lot of other well-known faces in the movie; Josh Hutcherson, Zac Efron, Sharon Stone, Bryan Cranston, Alison Brie and Seth Rogen (one of my favourite actors, actually playing a non-comedic role, and he also co-produced the movie with James Franco) with each portraying a real-life person

TAX TIPS 2017

DIABETIC? TRACK YOUR TIME

If you're diabetic, keep a record of how much time you spend on life-sustaining therapy. Since May 2017, the CRA denied disability claims for Type 1 diabetes, because they didn't think you required more than 14 hours per week to maintain your therapy. In December 2017, the CRA backtracked on this decision, so file your receipts and get what's yours.

AVOID EXTRA FEES BY FILING ON TIME

Make sure you file your tax return on time, especially if you have a balance due. Even if you know you won't be able to pay your tax bill right away, filing on time means you'll at least avoid the late filing penalty (a.k.a. having to pay even more tomorrow than you today). Putting off filing adds up fast, and is currently calculated as 5% of your balance due, plus 1% per month for a maximum of 12 months.

FILING IS ALWAYS A GOOD IDEA, ESPECIALLY FOR TEENS

If you turn 19 before April 1, 2019, make sure you file a 2017 income tax return so you can get the GST/HST credit. You'll get at least one GST/HST Credit cheque for the payment dates following your birthday. For example, if you turn 19 in March 2019, you'll receive the last quarterly payment for the July 2018 to June 2019 benefit period, which is paid in April 2019.

GET SOME CREDIT FOR BEING KIND

Made a charitable contribution this year? If you haven't claimed the charitable donations tax credit after 2007, any cash donations you make after March 20, 2013 (including donations you made in 2017) are eligible for the first-time donor super credit. This means you can access an additional 25% credit on your first $1,000 of donations. Cha-ching!

HOME SWEET SOLD

If you sold your home this year, make sure to designate it as your principal residence when you file your tax return. Forgetting this step could mean the principal residence exemption gets denied, and the capital gain from the sale would be taxed as income.
